Madi Sue Montgomery

BUILT FOR OKC

Oklahoma State returns a large chunk of its 2018 team, including standout seniors Madi Sue Montgomery and Taylor Lynch. The Cowgirls will also feature nine new faces in 2019, such as Texas A&M transfer Samantha Show. Together, this year's group stands as the most talented team of the Kenny Gajewski era in Stillwater.

Taylor Lynch

Slowly, but surely, the Oklahoma State softball program has returned to the forefront of college softball under fourth-year head coach Kenny Gajewski, and in 2019, the Cowgirls will be hoping to reclaim their perch among the sport's elite teams.

Gajewski has assembled a roster of 22 star student-athletes that can go toe-to-toe with any team in the country on any given field and on any given night. Through grueling fall camp, winter workouts and beyond, the Cowgirls have seen and heard about the potential this year's team possesses, but now is their chance to show that Oklahoma State does more than talk the talk.

In Taylor Lynch and Madi Sue Montgomery, Oklahoma State fields two strong pillars to anchor the program. As the only players to be active on the roster through Gajewski's first four years in Stillwater, the Texas tandem stands as a driving force for whatever success lays ahead for OSU. Beside them, the Cowgirls boast talented names like returning senior Rylee Bayless, sophomore captain Sydney Pennington, rising pitcher Logan Simunek and a former Texas A&M two-way standout in Samantha Show.

For the first time under Kenny Gajewski, Oklahoma State has a lineup that will incite fear in the opposition at every spot, and a pitching staff that contains five arms, each with a dynamic skillset to send opposing hitters back to the bench in a hurry. The Cowgirls, for all of the flash and hype that has been heaped upon the 2019 squad, have remained focused on their goal – Oklahoma City. Only 12 programs in the country have been to the Women's College World Series more frequently than Oklahoma State, and the new generation of Cowgirls are building themselves up to carry the program back to what was once its second home.

PITCHING STAFF

The 2019 Oklahoma State pitching staff will feature five arms, all of whom bring something different to the table and can mow down hitters in a variety of ways.

Texas A&M transfer Samantha Show figures to be the bulldog of the staff and anchor a mixture of fresh and familiar faces for the orange and black-clad Cowgirls. Show, a two-time NFCA All-Region selection, is a two-way star that will also contribute at the plate. In the circle, however, she was a dynamic arm that the Aggies could always rely on. Last season in College Station, she struck out 75 batters in 103.1 innings, held opposing hitters to a .236 average.

Show tossed her first career no-hitter in a five-inning gem against Penn State on March 6 and followed it up with a dominant nine-strikeout showing against Ole Miss on March 10. After just three seasons, Show ranked 10th in A&M history with 366 career strikeouts.

Oklahoma State will also feature two returning faces in the circle this season, as both Logan Simunek and Samantha Clakley are back for their junior and senior seasons, respectively.

Simunek's 2018 season was somewhat of a breakout year for the electric right-hander, as she tallied a 2.44 ERA in 97.2 innings pitched and tossed the first no-hitter by a Cowgirl pitcher since 2014 when she blanked Maine on March 3. The Piedmont, Oklahoma, native started the year with 21.2 innings of shutout work and late in the season she put in her best shifts against the top teams in the country. Against top-20 foes in 2018, Simunek allowed just nine earned runs in 27.2 innings of work. Narrow that to top-10 opponents and it gets even better as she surrendered just four earned runs in 19.1 innings pitched.

Clakley, meanwhile, was the workhorse in the circle for OSU last season, pitching 164.2 innings to go with a solid 2.76 ERA in her first season as a Big 12 competitor. Her 164.2 innings pitched were the third most of any Big 12 arm in 2018 and her earned run average ranked 10th among the league's top pitchers.

Oklahoma State's pitching staff will also feature another SEC transfer, as Gabby Sprang joins the family after one year at Tennessee. Sprang, a long-armed lefty, comes to Stillwater after a solid first season of collegiate softball in which she showed promise during her limited action at UT. Coming out of high school, Sprang was the nation's top pitching recruit and ranked No. 3 overall in FloSoftball's 2017 HOT 100 Rankings. She could be someone that sees an increased role with the Cowgirls throughout the season as she develops her immense talent.

The last arm out of the OSU bullpen this season is freshman Kelly Maxwell, who comes to the Cowgirls after a dominant high school and select career in Texas. Maxwell stormed through the opposition during her youth career, earning first-team All-State honors, being named an Under Armour All-American and receiving several other accolades for her success. The left-hander's role is still yet to be defined within such a deep slew of arms at the coaching staff's disposal, but she is a name that Cowgirl fans could hear for years to come over the stadium speakers.

CATCHERS

The catcher spot will look very familiar to Oklahoma State fans in 2019, as both Mackenzie Thomas and Raquel Dominguez return to handle duties behind the plate.

Thomas led the way at the catcher spot last season, appearing in 55 of OSU's 61 contests, starting on 50 of those occasions. She struggled at the plate, but was dynamic defensively for coach Kenny Gajewski, racking up a .991 fielding percentage and committing just two errors.

Dominguez was a late bloomer of sorts, as she saw limited action throughout the season, but started both of the Cowgirls' final two games in the NCAA Fayetteville Regional. In those two appearances, Dominguez went 3-for-7 and hit her first career double to show the promise she possessed heading into 2019.

OSU's backstop crew could also see a local favorite slot into the lineup at times, as Stillwater native Taylor Tuck has seen action at catcher all throughout the fall and early parts of the spring. Tuck was a three-sport star at Stillwater High School and is someone that could push the two veterans ahead of her for playing time at some point in 2019.

UTILITY

During Kenny Gajewski's tenure in Stillwater, he has made it no secret that he loves players that can move anywhere across the diamond and excel. His 2019 roster features several players that have seen several spots on the field and can step in as needed for the Cowgirls on any given day.

Taylor Lynch and Rylee Bayless highlight this group of utility players, as both have undergone transitions from everyday starters at third base to locking down spots as outfielders in the OSU lineup. Lynch is coming off yet another impressive season in a Cowgirl uniform as she was named an NFCA first-team All-Region selection and a second-team All-Big 12 performer in 2018. She posted a .358 batting average as OSU's right fielder and posted career highs in home runs (8), walks (17) and runs batted in (47). Lynch was also perfect defensively, going 50-for-50 on defensive chances out in right field. Bayless, meanwhile, seemed to be primed for an elite season after going 9-for-16 with four walks and nine runs scored during opening weekend in Arizona last year, but a torn ACL in practice forced her into a redshirt year. The former NJCAA National Player of the Year hasn't dwelled on her injury though and will again be a dynamic presence at the top of Oklahoma State's lineup this season.

Behind those two, the Cowgirls utility lineup features new faces such as the previously mentioned Taylor Tuck, freshman Mady Lohman and JUCO transfer Shalee Brantley. Lohman, in particular, will be a name Cowgirl fans hear quite often in 2019 as the scrappy Texan locked up a spot as one of the team's top competitors after an impressive fall season.

OUTFIELDERS

The outfield is an area where competition is always brewing for Oklahoma State, as it has been a prime spot for utility players like Bayless and Lynch to go head-to-head with the pure outfielders for playing time. This year's outfield crew consists of familiar faces like sophomore Chelsea Alexander and seniors Elise LeBeouf and Mallory Goodman, as well as a new face in freshman Chyenne Factor.

Alexander is the leading contender to see action of this outfield quartet after an impressive first year of college softball saw her earn a spot on the Big 12's All-Freshman team a year ago. The gritty sophomore was a highlight reel in left field last season during her 41 starts, and even made an appearance on SportsCenter's 'Top 10 Plays' for her diving catch against Texas in April. The left-handed hitter finished with a .300 batting average in 130 at-bats during her freshman campaign.

LeBeouf and Goodman didn't see much of the field in 2018, but have been chomping at the bit to crack the lineup during their senior seasons. Factor, meanwhile, is someone that the OSU coaches have kept their eye on because of the flashes of brilliance she showed in the fall. If their names aren't in the lineup though, the outfield crew will still serve as some of Gajewski's key names off the bench when the Cowgirls need a base hit or a strong baserunner.

INFIELDERS

Perhaps the talented group for Oklahoma State in 2019 comes from the infielders.

Led by returning starters Madi Sue Montgomery and Sydney Pennington, the infield defense could again be a standout area for OSU this season. Montgomery has started every game of her Cowgirl career thus far despite dealing with several nagging injuries throughout her first three years of college softball and will again hold her spot at second base. Pennington, meanwhile, was the only freshman to start all 61 games last season, doing so as a designated player, left fielder and eventually locking down a spot as OSU's starting shortstop.

The infield competition has been so fierce, that Pennington made the transition to third base to make way for freshman Kiley Naomi at shortstop. Pennington's selflessness and willingness to again change positions to help her team was one of the primary factors in Gajewski's decision to make her, along with Elise LeBeouf, the Cowgirls' team captains in 2019.

At shortstop, Naomi is likely to lock down the starting role thanks to a fierce competitive nature and freakish athleticism that will make her one of the Big 12's top defenders for years to come. With Naomi and Pennington together on the left side of the infield and in the lineup, OSU has a young tandem that could wreak havoc on the opposition for the next few seasons.

On the receiving end of the dynamic infield awaits a trio of talented first basemen. Michaela Richbourg, a returning sophomore, and Sydney Springfield, a transfer from LSU, will be the key names to watch out for as they look to fill the shoes of longtime OSU defensive stalwart Jessi Haffner at first base. Samantha Show will also see action opposite the hot corner on days where she isn't mowing through batters in the circle.

Thank you for your coverage of the Oklahoma State Cowgirls and Big 12 softball. Please let us know if we can assist your efforts at any time during the softball season. The following is a list of policies and procedures that are in place. Please contact the OSU athletics communications office with any questions or concerns.

John Langham (john.langham@okstate.edu) will serve as the communications contact for the Oklahoma State softball team this season.

The OSU athletics communications office is located in the southwest corner of Gallagher-Iba Arena on the second floor of the Athletics Center in room 220. The primary office number is 405-744-7714.

INTERVIEW AVAILABILITY

All interviews with Oklahoma State student-athletes and coaches should be coordinated through the athletics communications office. During the season, OSU players and coaches will be made available to the media on varying days. Telephone interviews may be arranged by contacting John Langham in the athletics communications office (john.langham@okstate.edu). All interview requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Season credentials for Oklahoma State softball must be requested through John Langham (john.langham@okstate.edu). Only media covering the Cowgirls on a consistent basis will be considered for season credentials. Credentials for home games will be operated through a pass list system, so there is no deadline for requesting to be added to the season credential list.

If you do not specifically request to be added to the season credential list, you will need to request credentials on a game-by-game basis. If you are doing so, please notify the OSU Athletic Communications team at least 48 hours in advance so as to ensure enough time for you to be added to the upcoming game's pass list.

MEDIA PARKING ON GAMEDAY

There is no designated media parking on gamedays for Oklahoma State softball. Parking is available in the gravel lots directly west of Cowgirl Stadium.

At each home game, there will be a parking attendant handing out parking passes to those without parking permits so as to avoid being ticketed by Parking Services.

PICKING UP CREDENTIALS ON GAMEDAY

Individuals that will be attending games will be able to pick up his or her credential prior to the start of each home game at the front gate of Cowgirl Stadium, which is located in the southwest corner of the complex next to the gravel lot. Credentials will be assigned and distributed via a pass list that John Langham (john.langham@okstate.edu) will oversee and manage throughout the year.

ENTERING THE STADIUM ON GAMEDAY

Working members of the media should enter Cowgirl Stadium at the main entrance located in the southwest corner of the complex. Once you enter the front gate, head directly down the stairs toward the concession stand. There you will find an elevator that will take you directly to the press box.

As a note, the front entrance to Cowgirl Stadium also doubles as the entry point for fans, so members of the media are advised to take this under consideration in terms of their arrival time.

HOW TO GET TO THE PRESS BOX

The press box is located on the top level of Cowgirl Stadium and opens one and a half hours prior to first pitch on gamedays.

After entering the stadium at the front gate, head down the steps toward the concession stand. There you will find an elevator that will take you directly to the press box.

FIELD ACCESS

To access the field at Cowgirl Stadium, take the elevator or stairs down to the main level. From there, you will find gates at the end of each team's dugouts that will provide access to the field. No members of the media will be granted field access prior to or during the game.

Credentialed members of the media are permitted to photograph or videotape in select areas of Cowgirl Stadium during games. Please see John Langham or another member of the OSU Athletic Communications team for further details on gamedays.

Members of the media should not approach Cowgirl players or coaches until the designated time for interview availability after the game.

GAMEDAY INTERVIEW AREAS

The postgame interview area is located on the third-base side of Cowgirl Stadium. Interviews with head coach Kenny Gajewski and select players will take place on the field near third base following a cooling-off period for players and coaches after the game concludes.

If there is a specific player you would like to interview, please make the request prior to the game's conclusion or as soon as possible after. Working members of the media should not approach OSU players or coaches for comments on the field. The OSU locker room is closed.

To access the interview area, take the elevator down to the ground level of Cowgirl Stadium and turn toward the third-base side. As you walk past the coaches offices, there will be a gate to give members of the media access to the field. There will be an OSU Athletic Communications staff member there to escort members of the media from the press box down to the field.

FTP SITE

Oklahoma State Athletics provides broadcast-quality video highlights for media use on its FTP site. The site is password protected. To register for FTP services, please contact Greg Bartlett (greg.bartlett@okstate.edu).

For highlights of Cowgirl games, or to obtain footage, contact the OSU athletics communications office, or C.J. Lickert, Oklahoma State's video and technical director (lickert@okstate.edu).

Coaches & Staff

Kenny Gajewski enters his fourth season at the helm of the OSU softball program looking to build on the momentum that the Cowgirls have created during his first three years in charge.

OKLAHOMA STATE
COWGIRLS

HEAD COACH
FOURTH YEAR AT OSU | FOURTH YEAR OVERALL
OKLAHOMA, 1995

► Gajewski's 109 wins during his first three years in Stillwater are the most by an Oklahoma State softball head coach in his or her first three seasons in team history.

► At OSU, has overseen 32 Academic All-Big 12 selections, as well as three Academic All-District and three Academic All-America honorees.

► Has coached 11 All-Region selections, 11 All-Big 12 honorees. Among the All-Big 12 selection is the 2016 & 2018 Big 12 Player of the Year, Vanessa Shippy, who also earned All-America honors during each of Gajewski's first three seasons in Stillwater.

► Led the Cowgirls to their first victory over a No. 1-ranked opponent since 2011 when OSU defeated top-ranked Florida, 1-0, in Gainesville to advance to the regional championship game.

► Guided the Cowgirls to 12 wins in the Big 12 Conference in 2017 & 2018 - the squad's most since also winning 12 during the 2010 campaign. OSU's second-place finish in 2018 was also the team's best since also placing second in the conference in 2003.

► Gajewski's Cowgirls have been selected to the NCAA Tournament in each of his first three seasons, and twice his team advanced to the winner-take-all regional championship game.

► Coached in the Women's College World Series on three occasions (2013-15) and won two national championships (2014-15) while he was an assistant coach at Florida.

► In total, Gajewski has overseen nine All-Americans, including OSU's three-time All-American, Vanessa Shippy. Also included among Gajewski's prominent pupils is the 2015 National Collegiate Player of the Year, Lauren Haeger, whom he coached at Florida.

► During his tenure at Oklahoma State, the Cowgirls have broken 18 team records and set new benchmarks in 20 individual categories.

► While an assistant at Florida, Gajewski and the Gators' coaching staff was selected as the 2014 National Fastpitch Coaches Association Coaching Staff of the Year.

From the time that Kenny Gajewski took over the Oklahoma State softball program in June 2015, he has led the Cowgirls back into the national spotlight and molded his team into one of college softball's most promising programs.

During each of his first three seasons at the helm, Gajewski (pronounced 'GUY-ehh-ski') has guided the Cowgirls to the NCAA Tournament. He has also won 109 games during his first three years in Stillwater - the most by a head coach during his or her first three seasons in team history.

Gajewski's 109 wins is a notable feat in and of itself. But when you also consider that several of the OSU head coach's wins have come against the nation's toughest competition, it only furthers the already-impressive nature of his team's performance.

Thirty-nine of those victories came during a successful 2018 campaign that saw the Cowgirls finish second in the Big 12 for the first time since 2003. The Cowgirls' growth under Gajewski was on full display throughout a season in which OSU: achieved its first top-15 ranking since 2011, reached the 20-win mark just 26 games into the year, swept No. 16 Baylor in a three-game series for the first time in team history and earned the program's first series victory over the Texas Longhorns in Austin.

Oklahoma State, for all its success on the field, also continued to be among the best away from the diamond in 2018. The Cowgirls had 10 players named first-team Academic All-Big 12 honorees, marking the third-straight year that OSU has had at least 10 competitors recognized by the league office. Thirty-two Cowgirls have been named to one of the Academic All-Big 12 teams during Gajewski's three seasons – the most of any team in the conference.

Back on the field, the prominent win of Kenny Gajewski's head coaching career thus far came during the Cowgirls' run in the 2017 NCAA Tournament when Oklahoma State knocked off the No. 1-ranked Florida Gators in Gainesville to stave off elimination and advance to the winner-take-all regional championship game. OSU's 1-0 win over the top-ranked Gators marked the Cowgirls' third win over the nation's No. 1 team in team history and their first since 2011.

In 2017, the Cowgirls also picked up a pair of wins over No. 12 Baylor, including a 2-0 shutout during the Big 12 Championship. Gajewski's team also showed its ability to win on the road, as the Cowgirls knocked off No. 22 Ole Miss, 5-1, in Oxford, Mississippi, during the 2017 Ole Miss Classic.

The Cowgirls finished that season with a 38-25 record, which included 12 wins and a third-place finish in the Big 12, both of which were the team's best since 2010. Oklahoma State's 2017 campaign was a historic one for the rising program and along with the team's 38 wins, the Cowgirls set numerous records and collected plenty of hardware in the form of postseason awards and recognitions.

Gajewski's squad had a program-record 12 players selected to Academic All-Big 12 teams. It was the second-straight year that OSU had set the program's top mark for Academic All-Big 12 honorees, after having 10 competitors honored in 2016. The OSU head coach also has overseen three Academic All-District and three Academic All-America honorees during his stint in Stillwater.

Oklahoma State was also recognized for its on-field success during the postseason awards, as Rylee Bayless, Madi Sue Montgomery, Brandi Needham and Vanessa Shippy were named All-Big 12 players at the end of the year. Bayless, Needham, Shippy and Taylor Lynch were all also honored as All-Region selections.

At the season's end, Gajewski and his coaching staff collected an impressive honor of their own as they were named the NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year. In total, the 2017 campaign saw Oklahoma State continue its ascent toward the top of college softball, but Gajewski's first season in Stillwater wasn't without its highlights as well.

Gajewski's inaugural Stillwater campaign saw him lead the Cowgirls back to the postseason for the first time since 2011. Under his leadership, OSU led the Big 12 in Academic All-Big 12 selections, broke 11 school records and had its first player earn both Academic All-America and All-America honors since 2003 in Vanessa Shippy.

Shippy, under Gajewski's watchful eye, also earned All-America and Academic All-America honors in 2017 and 2018, making her just the second Oklahoma State athlete, regardless of sport, to earn at least three All-America and Academic All-America honors.

OSU showed it was destined for a return to success early in Gajewski's first season when OSU picked up a February win over No. 9 Washington in the Mary Nutter Classic, which was the program's first win over a top-10 opponent since 2013.

From there, the Cowgirls continued to build on their early success as they looked to restore the program to its winning ways.

The 2016 Cowgirls found success once again in Big 12 play, sweeping Iowa State to earn their first sweep of a conference opponent since 2012 and earning a series win over Kansas in Lawrence, the first road series win in the Big 12 since 2011. In total, Oklahoma State finished Gajewski's first season with seven series wins.

Under Gajewski, the Cowgirls embraced the pressure down the stretch on their way to winning seven of their last nine games, including a season-high seven game winning streak, to secure their place in the postseason at the Georgia Regional. Gajewski helped bring the power to the field with 53 home runs on the season, the most since 2011. Overall the team finished with a .301 batting average, the third best in the Big 12. In total, OSU broke 11 school records throughout the year as a team.

The other records that fell under his guidance in his first year include the team's 339 runs scored, .408 on-base percentage, 315 RBIs, 5.43 RBIs per game, 232 walks, 0.91 home runs per game, four walks per game, 711 total bases and 12.3 total bases per game.

As for single-game records, the Cowgirls hit five home runs against Central Arkansas on April 13, which tied for the most long balls in a game in program history.

On a single-season performance level, Gajewski helped Shippy to a .543 on-base percentage, the highest in school history. Shippy also produced with runs, breaking the program record for runs scored in a year with 58.

Before coming to OSU, Gajewski coached alongside Tim Walton at Florida, where the Gators won back-to-back national championships in his final two years. In 2015, Florida posted top-25 NCAA marks in earned run average (1.63), scoring (6.55 runs per game) and on-base percentage (.438), in addition to leading the nation in the fielding percentage category. The Gators' 60-7 record led the country in win-loss percentage and marked the second-highest win total in school history.

Prior to joining the Gators, Gajewski spent the 2011-12 season as the director of baseball operations at Tennessee. With the Volunteers, he was in charge of managing UT's camps, overseeing student managers and handling the day-to-day operations of the baseball program. Gajewski's roots trace back to the University of Oklahoma, however, as he played for the Sooner baseball squad in 1994 that won a national championship and earned his first coaching stint as a graduate assistant the following season.

Gajewski then served as a volunteer assistant at Kansas State in 1996 before returning to Norman, where he would begin a 10-year stretch as the Sooners' turf and maintenance director. In 2001, the field at OU's L. Dale Mitchell Park was named the Beam Clay Baseball Diamond of the Year. That same season, the OU Softball Complex was presented the Field Maintenance Award by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association and TURFACE sports field products.

Since 2007, Gajewski has been the owner and operator of three Norman, Okla.-based turf businesses - Champions Athletic Turf (athletic field renovation), Sooner Curb and Border (decorative concrete) and Amerituf MidSouth (synthetic turf).

A native of Los Alamitos, Calif., Gajewski has two children, Preston and Logan Gajewski.

STACIE PESTRAK

ASSISTANT COACH
FOURTH YEAR AT OSU | NINTH YEAR OVERALL
FLORIDA, 2006

Stacie Pestrak is entering her fourth season as an assistant coach for the Oklahoma State softball program under head coach Kenny Gajewski.

Under Pestrak's leadership, Oklahoma State has developed the fundamentals on the basepaths, in the outfield and elsewhere to compete with the nation's best. She was a key part in the transition of former OSU standout Tiffany Mikkelson to the outfield after she had played third the previous three seasons.

Under her watch, Mikkelson turned into one of the best defensive outfielders in the conference and shined at the plate with 11 home runs on her way to becoming the Oklahoma State all-time leader for home runs with 35.

Pestrak also helped Taylor Lynch transition to the outfield in 2017, as the sophomore continued to build on her incredibly productive freshman campaign. Another notable pupil of the Cowgirls' assistant coach is senior Maddi Holcomb, who has become known for making the most difficult of plays look easy in the outfield. Holcomb has commited just two errors in the past two seasons.

Pestrak joined the Oklahoma State staff on June 29, 2015, after serving as a volunteer assistant coach with Florida for the previous two seasons. Along with Gajewski, Pestrak was instrumental in the Gators' success, guiding the team to its second-consecutive national championship three years ago. She also played for the Gators for two years (2005-06), and returned to Gainesville after spending 2013 as an assistant coach at the University of Buffalo.

As a player, Pestrak helped the Gators to two-straight NCAA Tournament appearances and garnered 2006 SEC Academic Honor Roll accolades. She still ranks fourth in the Gators' record book for single-season sacrifice hits (13 in 2005). Pestrak was 31-of-39 on the base paths, including 14-straight steals in 2005. The utility player was a junior college All-America selection in 2004 at Santa Fe College prior to arriving in Gainesville. She also earned the Florida Community College Athletic Association's Jean Williams Scholar-Athlete Award and was a two-time academic all-state selection.

Following her Gator playing career, Pestrak spent two years in the National Pro Fastpitch League with the Philadelphia Force before beginning her coaching career at Northwestern State University, where she helped the Demons go from a five-win season in 2009 to a 27-win campaign in 2010. One season later, Northwestern State won 32 games. She was responsible for player skill development for defense (infield and outfield), base running and bunting, while assisting in the development of hitting, conditioning and game strategy.

JEFF COTTRILL

ASSISTANT COACH
FOURTH YEAR AT OSU | SECOND YEAR AS COACH
SOUTHWESTERN (KS), 2008

Jeff Cottrill is entering his fourth season with the Oklahoma State softball program in 2019 and his second as the team's pitching coach. He spent his first two years in Stillwater as the program's director of operations.

Cottrill's collegiate coaching debut in 2018 was a success all around, as he helped steer the Oklahoma State pitching staff to a 2.64 ERA for the year.

OSU primarily used a three-man staff during Cottrill's first season and all of them saw marked improvement under his guidance. Samantha Clakley, the team's leader in innings pitched, was named a second-team All-Big 12 performer. Emmie Robertson, the team's ERA leader, earned Big 12 Pitcher of the Week honors during the year and led the Cowgirls with 86 strikeouts. And lastly, Logan Simunek tossed the first no-hitter by a Cowgirl since 2014.

While the 2018 season was Cottrill's first official coaching campaign, he did have some prior experience working with OSU's arms.

During head coach Kenny Gajewski's inaugural campaign in 2016, Cottrill stepped in to manage the team's pitching staff when former OSU pitching coach Charlotte Morgan had to take a leave of absence for health-related issues.

Cottrill worked closely with the entirety of the Oklahoma State pitching staff over the next month. In that time, he helped spark a run of tremendous pitching that guided the Cowgirls back to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011.

Among the standouts from the group that Cottrill briefly managed was Kacy Freeze, who posted a sub-4.00 ERA and recorded a team-high 19 victories during her senior season. Freeze totaled 44 appearances in 2016, pitching 19 complete games and tossing three shutouts. She also recorded four saves during the 2016 season, which ranks as the second most by a player in a single season in team history.

Prior to his time at Oklahoma State, Cottrill worked closely with the Wichita Mustangs Softball Academy in Wichita, Kansas. He ran the team's operations in both 2013 and 2014, while also coaching within the organization for five years.

Cottrill earned his degree in business administration in 2008 from Southwestern College in Winfield, Kansas.

CODY BARHAM

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST YEAR AT OSU | FIRST YEAR OVERALL
ROGERS STATE, 2019

Cody Barham joins the Oklahoma State softball coaching staff as the team's volunteer assistant coach this year. He comes to Stillwater after serving in a variety of coaching roles across the state of Oklahoma.

Previously, Barham spent four seasons as an assistant softball coach and the junior varsity head coach at Oklahoma Wesleyan University. There, he worked primarily with the pitching staff and oversaw the development of the outfielders.

Former OWU pitcher Jenna Daniel ranks as one of Barham's top talents, as she was named the MCAC Pitcher of the Year in 2014 and 2015, the KCAC Pitcher of the Year in 2016 and earned NAIA Second-Team All-America honors in 2016.

Makayla Kelly also stands out as one of Barham's prominent pupils, as she earned KCAC Second-Team All-Conference honors as a pitcher under Barham's watchful eye. She was also honored as a gold-glove defender in the circle.

Barham has also spent time as an assistant coach and junior varsity head coach at Bartlesville High School and at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

At both stops, he managed both the pitchers and catchers among other coaching responsibilities.

Outside of the academic realm, Barham also worked as a travel softball coach with the Tulsa Shootout's 12U team. He also served as a pitching instructor for all ages as Perfect Practice, located in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

CLAIRE WILLIAMS

ATHLETIC TRAINER | FIFTH YEAR
NORTHERN ARIZONA, 2011

Claire Williams is entering her fifth season as an athletic trainer at Oklahoma State, and during her time she has worked with a variety of sports, but has spent much of her time around the Cowgirl softball program.

Williams has been vital to Oklahoma State's reemergence into the national spotlight, as her skill as a trainer has helped the Cowgirls maintain their fitness and remain both fresh and competitive on the field.

During her tenure, she has helped players recover and rehab from a variety of injuries. From everyday stingers to strains and sprains, Williams has handled it all.

One of her most notable displays as an athletic trainer was helping senior pitcher Whitney Whitehorn recover twice from torn labrums in her hips. Under her guidance, Whitehorn returned to pitch in 2017 after missing the 2016 season due to injury.

Prior to her arrival in Stillwater, Williams earned her bachelor's degree in athletic training at Northern Arizona University in 2011. She also earned a master's degree from Arizona State in 2014.

Since his arrival in 2006, Jesse Martin has served in various capacities for OSU Athletics. After beginning his stint as associate ticket manager, Martin was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Development. He currently serves as OSU's Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Martin was in his fifth season with Mississippi Sea Wolves professional hockey team of the ECHL. Named the eighth general manager in team history, Martin also served for three seasons as Mississippi's Assistant General Manager. During his tenure with the Sea Wolves, he was selected as the 2004 ECHL Ticket Executive of the Year.

A native of Madison, Kansas, Martin received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in marketing from Fort Hays State in Hays, Kansas, before completing an internship with Walt Disney World Resorts in Orlando, Fla.

Jesse and his wife, Ashleigh, who is from Biloxi, Mississippi, reside in Stillwater with their daughter, Mackenzie, son, Maddox and son, Miles.

The 2018 campaign was Wes Ulm's first season as the strength and conditioning coach for the Oklahoma State softball program. It was also the beginning of his second stint working with head coach Kenny Gajewski, as the two spent a year on the softball staff at Florida prior to Gajewski's arrival in Stillwater.

Ulm joined the OSU staff last year after spending three years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida. While at UF, he helped the Gators win three SEC championships and the 2015 National Championship.

He has also previously worked as a strength and conditioning intern at Mississippi State in 2014.

Ulm graduated from Cincinnati in 2014 with a degree in health services. He also completed his master's degree while working at Florida.

2018 Season Review

Oklahoma State continued its rapid growth under head coach Kenny Gajewski in 2018, as the Cowgirls made their third-straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

OSU's 39 wins last season also marked the team's most since winning 42 games in 2011.

Vanessa Shippy

"WE LEFT OUR HEARTS ON THE FIELD."

Sydney Pennington

Those seven words were muttered by senior Vanessa Shippy and described the feeling that she and her fellow seniors had after their collegiate softball careers concluded with a heart-wrenching 5-4 loss to Wichita State on Saturday, May 19, in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Though its ending was a bitter pill for the Cowgirls to swallow, the 2018 season is one that will be remembered for years to come due to the team's connection with the Stillwater community, the records they shattered, and ultimately "#Team3" will be remembered for showing the nation that OSU softball was truly back to being one of the country's top programs.

Oklahoma State's 2018 journey began in Tempe, Arizona, where the Cowgirls took part in the Kajikawa Classic for the first time since 2011. Temperatures in the desert were almost as scorching as the Cowgirls' play on opening weekend, as OSU blasted off to a 4-1 start, scoring 51 runs and blasting 13 home runs during the five-game tournament. Included in those victories was a 9-4 triumph over No. 7 Arizona on opening day, as well as a 21-run outburst against Western Michigan in the finale.

OSU's 21 runs tied a team record for the most runs scored in a single game in program history. It was the fourth time that a Cowgirl squad had reached that mark, and the third time head coach Kenny Gajewski's team had done so since the start of the 2017 season.

The team continued to roll through the following weeks, posting a 4-1 mark at the Michele Smith Pediatric Cancer Invitational, and sweeping a pair of five-game tournaments - one being the Mizuno Classic at Cowgirl Stadium, and another the first OSU Hall of Fame Classic, which was contested at USA Softball Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City.

Gajewski's Cowgirls wrapped up a blazing 21-6 start to the year with a pair of midweek victories over Illinois State and Central Arkansas on March 13 and 14, respectively.

Anchoring the Cowgirls throughout the season was the previously mentioned Vanessa Shippy. She posted eye-popping numbers right from the start, going 11-for-13 at the plate while scoring nine runs, driving in six, walking five times and hitting two home runs during the Kajikawa Classic.

Shippy earned national player of the week honors from USA Softball, the NFCA and College Sports Madness after her opening-weekend showing. She continued to storm through opponents of any shape or size, and was named national player of the week again by College Sports Madness on March 13. She was also named the Big 12 Player of the Week three times throughout the year.

At the end of the regular season, Shippy was crowned as the Big 12 Player of the Year for the second time in her career, as well as being named a top-10 finalist for the 2018 USA Softball College Player of the Year award. Shippy also notched first-team All-America and Academic All-America honors, and was named the Big 12 Softball Scholar-Athlete of the Year for the second-consecutive year.

She concluded her senior season with a .471 batting average, a .613 on-base percentage, 73 runs scored and 57 walks. All four of those marks placed Shippy among the top-five competitors nationally in 2018. Shippy walks away from Oklahoma State with no fewer than 12 school records to her credit, with several of those records being set during her final collegiate campaign.

Behind Shippy, the Oklahoma State lineup remained as fierce as its leadoff batter, with juniors Taylor Lynch and Madi Sue Montgomery rounding out one of the nation's most dynamic offensive trios. Sluggers like freshman Sydney Pennington, as well as seniors Jessi Haffner and Whitney Whitehorn followed the top-three and created one of the most menacing lineups ever seen at Oklahoma State.

The offense shattered nine OSU single-season team records, many of which were set back in 2016 during Gajewski's first season in charge. Included in that list are team slugging percentage (.480), hits (517), runs scored (347), runs batted in (318) and home runs (62), among others.

Gajewski's Cowgirls also came within one point of tying for the team record in batting average and were a mere six points shy of matching the 2016 squad's record-setting on-base percentage mark.

Madi Sue Montgomery was one of the main contributors in OSU's loaded offense in 2018, as she recorded 67 hits, 31 of which went for extra bases. Fifteen of Montgomery's extra-base hits were home runs, as she broke a decade-old OSU record held previously by Kim Kaye and Courtney Totte for the most homes runs hit by a Cowgirl in a single season.

Madi Sue Montgomery

She broke the record with a two-run blast to straightaway center field during Oklahoma State's 5-1 victory over Iowa State in the Cowgirls' final game of the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship in Oklahoma City.

Montgomery burst onto the scene as a freshman in 2016, leading the Big 12 in RBI up until the final week, but struggled in 2017 after tearing her ACL before the season. The 2018 season marked her return to form though, as she extended her consecutive games started streak to 182, broke the single-season home run record and posted several other historic marks, all despite continuing to battle a barrage of nagging injuries.

The Burleson, Texas, native tallied 130 total bases and drove in 68 runs in 2018, placing her among the elite single-season marks in school history. Both totals were just three shy of matching the OSU records, held by Jaime Foutch (1997) and Courtney Totte (2007), respectively.

Montgomery now ranks fourth in team history with 156 career RBI, eighth in total bases with 296 and is tied for sixth in career home runs with 25.

Her contributions to the OSU single-season home run record came throughout the season, including blasting a pair of home runs during the opening game of an April 13 doubleheader against No. 16 Baylor at Cowgirl Stadium. Montgomery's second blast of that game tied the 2016 team's mark of 53 home runs. Jessi Haffner then broke the record with a three-run, walk-off shot over the right-field wall that capped OSU's 14-6 run-rule victory over the Lady Bears.

Oklahoma State's run-rule win catapulted the Cowgirls to a three-game sweep of their conference rival, marking the first time that the Pokes have swept Baylor in a three-game series in program history. OSU also picked up its first series win in Austin, Texas, as the Cowgirls defeated the Texas Longhorns twice in a three-game set one week after sweeping Baylor.

Gajewski's squad won or swept its first five Big 12 series in 2018, securing the Cowgirls' spot as second-place finishers in the Big 12. It was the first time that OSU had finished in the league's top two since 2003.

The Cowgirls also finished with 12 victories in league play for the second-straight year under Gajewski, marking the first time that OSU has won double-digit conference games in consecutive years since the 1996 and 1997 campaigns.

Success in the Big 12 Conference has always been hard to come by, but six Cowgirls showed themselves to be among the best in the conference throughout the season, and at the season's end they were all honored by the league.

Vanessa Shippy was the highlight of that group, as she earned first-team All-Big 12 honors for the third-straight year, and, as previously mentioned, was named the Big 12 Player of the Year for a second time. Lynch and Montgomery, as well as the Cowgirls' workhorse in the circle, Samantha Clakley, all received second-team honors.

The group was rounded out by Sydney Pennington and Chelsea Alexander, both of whom were named to the All-Freshman team.

Both budding young stars, Pennington and Alexander put together impressive numbers during their first collegiate campaigns. Pennington's seven home runs were two shy of Julie Ward's OSU freshman record set in 2009, and her 43 RBI were the third most by a freshman in school history. Meanwhile, Alexander batted .300 and stole seven bases after replacing the injured Rylee Bayless in left field and blossomed into one of the Cowgirls' prime contributors in the lineup and the field.

The Big 12 also recognized 10 Cowgirls as first-team Academic All-Big 12 honorees. OSU's 10 first-team selections was the most of any program in the league and marked the third straight year that the Cowgirls had double-digit players selected to the Academic All-Big 12 teams.

Shippy, Lynch, Montgomery and Maddi Holcomb all were named to the NFCA All-Region teams as well, with the former three earning first-team honors and Holcomb collecting a nod to the second team.

Oklahoma State was selected to compete in the NCAA Tournament for a third-straight season. It was the first time since a three-year run from 2009-11 that OSU has been named in the field of 64 for three consecutive seasons. The Cowgirls' run in the Fayetteville Region was cut short after running into a gritty Wichita State squad that was a thorn in the team's side all throughout the 2018 season.

Despite the rough ending, 2018 will be remembered as a very important year in Cowgirl lore. Team records were broken, the roller coaster of emotions was felt every step of the way, and most importantly - a lifetime's worth of memories were made for those in the stands and those on the field.

MICHELE SMITH: A COWGIRL LEGEND

MICHELE SMITH

OKLAHOMA STATE, 1986-89

ASA Hall of Fame, Class of 2006
Two-time Olympic Gold Medalist (1996, 2000)
Two-time All-American (1988, 1989)
Three-time All-Big Eight selection (1986, 1988, 1989)

Michele Smith was named first-team All-American in both 1988 and 1989. During her four-year Cowgirl career, Smith was selected to the All-Big Eight team three times, the All-Region team twice and the Big Eight All-Tournament team three times, including in 1989 when she was named the tournament's most valuable player.

She was also a member of the 1989 Women's College World Series team that tied for third place and was named to the all-WCWS team.

As a pitcher and designated player, Smith has left her name among the best in Cowgirl softball history. She has thrown the most no-hitters in school history with nine, two of which were perfect games.

Smith ranks in the top 10 in 16 offensive and pitching season records including two seasons with 26 victories, which ties for the third-most in a single season. She also owns the school record for career victories with 82, is tied for second in career triples with 10, and is second in shutouts with 46.

After her record-setting career as a Cowgirl, Smith went on to play for Team USA and played professionally in Japan. She twice competed in the Olympic Games, winning a gold medal with the United States National Team during the 1996 Atlanta games and the 2000 Sydney games. Smith also captured three gold medals in the World Championships (1994, 1998, 2002) while with Team USA.

During her professional career, Smith won eight Japan League championships with Toyota Shokki, while also being named the league's most valuable player on eight occasions.

Smith was named the United States Olympic Committee and American Softball Association Sportswoman of the Year in both 1990 and 1994. The Califon, New Jersey native was inducted into the ASA Hall of Fame in 2006, the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame in 2010 and most recently the Oklahoma State University Alumni Hall of Fame in 2011.

She graduated from Oklahoma State in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in health & wellness.

ALL-AMERICANS

THREE-TIME ALL-AMERICANS

1996, 1997, 1998

JAIME FOUTCH

1B/OF - EDMOND, OKLA.

1996 Third Team All-American - OF
1997 Third Team All-American - 1B
1998 First Team All-American - At-Large 1B

Jaime Foutch was the first Cowgirl to be named a three-time All-American. She was a third-team selection as an outfielder in 1996 and a third-teamer at first base in 1997. Jaime was a first-team selection as an at-large first baseman in 1998. She was a member of the 1998 Women's College World Series team that finished fourth.

Foutch, a native of Edmond, Okla., is the only Cowgirl to be named Big 12 Freshman of the Year. In each of her four years in Stillwater, she earned first-team all-Big 12 and first-team all-Region honors. In 1997, she made the Big 12 Conference all-tournament team. Throughout her career, she was selected as Big 12 Player of the Week four times.

Foutch's name appears on almost every OSU record list. In each of her four seasons, her batting average ranks in the all-time top 15. She holds the record for the most hits in a game (six against Nebraska in 1997) and is tied for the second most RBI in a game (six against Marshall in 1997). During her sophomore year, Foutch set the record for the most doubles hit in a season with 22 (also a Big 12 record) and tallied the most bases in a season with 133.

Jaime Foutch's name is at the top of most career offensive categories. She holds the top spot in slugging percentage (.612), hits (278) and total bases (425). She also ranks second with her 56 career doubles.

VANESSA SHIPPY

UTL - COEUR D'ALENE, IDAHO

2016 Third Team All-American - UTL
2017 Third Team All-American - UTL
2018 First Team All-American - 3B

Vanessa Shippy will undoubtedly be remembered as one of the greatest to ever don the orange and black. An All-American in each of her final three seasons, Shippy shattered records and ranked among the elite in almost every single offensive category after graduating in 2018.

Shippy was the sixth player to earn multiple All-America honors after the 2017 season, and then she joined Jaime Foutch as the only Cowgirls to ever be named an All-American on three occassions in 2018. She was also named an Academic All-American three times - the only Cowgirl to ever achieve that feat.

The Coeur D'Alene, Idaho native set no fewer than 12 school records during her stint in Stillwater, including: most games played, most games started, most consecutive games started, highest career on-base percentage, most career walks, among others.

Shippy also broke Foutch's longstanding career doubles record in the 2018 NCAA Tournament. Her 57 career doubles are tops in both OSU and Big 12 history.

She finished her career with an incredible .404/.532/.585 slash line and ranks among the top two players in school history in all three of those categories.

Shippy's historic 2018 saw her become the fifth player in Big 12 history to record at least 225 hits, 150 walks, 150 runs scored and 125 RBI. She was named national player of the week twice during the season and was a top-10 finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year.

At the season's end, Shippy was named the Big 12 Player of the Year for the second time in her career, becoming just the third player in league history to achieve that feat.

TWO-TIME ALL-AMERICANS

1988, 1989

SHARI JOHNSON

SS - MOORE, OKLA.

1988 Second Team All-American - SS
1989 First Team All-American - SS

Shari Johnson was a two-time All-American, garnering first-team honors in 1989 and being named to the second team in 1988. The native of Moore, Okla., was an All-Big Eight selection twice, was named all-region in 1988 and was a member of the Big Eight all-tournament team in 1988 as well. She was also a member of the 1989 Cowgirl team that went to the Women's College World Series and tied for third place.

In 1988, Johnson had a 14-game hitting streak that is tied for sixth-longest in school history. Her batting average that season was an incredible .404. She is also in the top 10 for hits in a season (69) and on-base percentage (.457).

MELANIE ROCHE

P - CLAYMORE, NSW, AUSTRALIA

1992 First Team All-American - P
1993 First Team All-American - P

Melanie Roche was named first-team All-American twice in her career as a Cowgirl in 1992 and 1993. She was also a member of two Women's College World Series teams, the 1990 team which finished third and the 1993 squad which finished fourth. Roche made the WCWS all-tournament team in 1993.

During her four years in Stillwater, Roche received several awards. She was first-team All-Big Eight three times and Academic All-Big Eight in 1991. In 1992, the Australian native was selected to the Big Eight conference all-tournament team and, in 1993, she was named to the all-Region team.

Roche holds several Cowgirl pitching records, including career shutouts (47), consecutive scoreless innings pitched (60.2), season victories (32) and the fewest walks per game (1.12). She once threw all 24 innings of a single game against Kansas. She threw four no-hitters, including a perfect game against Kent State in 1991.

After her career as a Cowgirl, Roche went on to play on the Australian National Team. She was also on four Australian Olympic teams, appearing in the 1996 Atlanta games, the 2000 Sydney games, the 2004 Athens games and the 2008 Beijing games. Roche earned four Olympic medals during her international career (three bronze, one silver).

P - CALIFON, NEW JERSEY

1988 First Team All-American - UTL
1989 First Team All-American - P

Michele Smith was named first-team All-American in both 1988 and 1989. During her four-year Cowgirl career, Smith was selected to the All-Big Eight team three times, the all-Region team twice and the Big Eight all-tournament team three times (including 1989 when she was MVP of the tournament). She was also a member of the 1989 Women's College World Series team that tied for third place and was named to the all-WCWS team.

As a pitcher and designated player, Smith has left her name among the best in Cowgirl softball history. She has thrown the most no-hitters in school history with nine, two of which were perfect games.

Smith ranks in the top 10 in 16 offensive and pitching season records including two seasons with 26 victories which ties for the third-most in a season. She is also in the top 10 for 16 offensive and pitching career records. She owns the school record for career victories with 82, is tied for second in career triples with 10, and is second in shutouts with 46.

After her record-setting career as a Cowgirl, Smith went on to play for Team USA and had a professional playing career in Japan. She was on the U.S. Olympic team at the 1996 Atlanta Games and the 2000 Sydney Games where she won a gold medal at both.

Michele Smith

1994, 1995

KIM WARD

P - ESCONDIDO, CALIFORNIA

1994 First Team All-American - UTL
1995 Second Team All-American - At-Large UTL

Kim Ward was named first-team All-American in 1994 and was a second-team All-American selection in 1995. In both of her years as a Cowgirl, she was named to the All-Big Eight team and the all-Midwest Region team.

Ward was an integral part of the 1994 Women's College World Series team that took third place. She was selected to be on the WCWS all-tournament team.

During her career in Stillwater, Ward threw five career no-hitters. She is second among all Cowgirls for wins in a season with 27 and is fourth for appearances in a season with 42.

The California native is in the top five among Oklahoma State players in several career categories. She is second for career slugging percentage (.557) and third in career saves (five). She is fourth all-time for career on-base percentage with .428 and is also fourth for the most strikeouts per seven-inning game at 7.81 strikeouts per game.

FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

LAUREN BAY

P - TRAIL, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA

2003 First Team All-American - At-Large P

Lauren Bay was a first-team All-America selection in 2003 and earned several accolades during her four years as a Cowgirl. She was named all-Big 12 all four years and Academic all-Big 12 and all-Midwest Region in 2001, 2002 and 2003. Bay is the only Cowgirl to be honored as the Big 12 Player of the Year (2003) and she was also selected as the pitcher for the Big 12's 10th Anniversary Team.

During her career in Stillwater, Lauren left her mark in the record books and holds the top spot for several categories. The native of Canada has the most strikeouts per seven-inning game in a season (12.71) as well as a career (9.44). She holds the top two spots for most strikeouts in a season with 451 in 2003 and 314 in 2002. Bay holds the record for career strikeouts with 1,151.

Lauren threw three no-hitters in her career, including two perfect games against Tulsa and South Florida in 2002. She also has the most career saves among OSU players with eight.

After her years at Oklahoma State, Bay went on to play for the Canadian National Team, which included an appearance on the roster for the 2004 Athens Olympic Games where Canada placed fifth. She was named co-Pitcher of the Year with teammate Jennie Finch in the NPF league playing for the Chicago Bandits.

DEE BREWER

OF - HOUSTON, TEXAS

1988 First Team All-American - OF

Dee Brewer was named a first-team All-American as a freshman in 1988. During her Oklahoma State career, she was selected twice to the All-Big Eight team, once to the all-region team and once to the Big Eight all-tournament team. Brewer was also a member of the 1989 Women's College World Series team that tied for third place.

As on outfielder for the Cowgirls, Brewer stood out on the offensive end. In 1989, she had four hits against Sam Houston State, which is tied for the second-most hits in a game. She is also in the top 10 for several season records including batting average (ninth with a .390 average), hits (ninth with 67), runs scored (seventh with 36), and total bases (seventh with 100).

Brewer is also listed among the career offensive record numbers, despite playing just two seasons. She is sixth with her .416 on-base percentage. Her .355 career batting average ranks fourth in school history.

JAN DRUMMOND

OF - STILLWATER, OKLA.

1988 First Team All-American - OF

In 1980, Jan Drummond was the first Cowgirl to be named a first-team All-American. The center fielder from Stillwater was a four-year member of the Cowgirl softball team at Oklahoma State.

During the 1980 season, Drummond compiled a .324 batting average, second-best on the team. She scored a team-high 30 runs and finished the year with two home runs and eight runs batted in.

Also in 1980, her senior season, the Cowgirls advanced to the AIAW National Tournament for the first time in school history, compiling a 2-2 record at the tournament held in Norman. The Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women would eventually give way to the NCAA and the Women's College World Series.

Drummond played a major role in the transition of women's athletics moving from the Colvin Center to the OSU athletics department. She was a member of the women's track and field hockey team as well.

1982

PAM HARPER

1B - TULSA, OKLA.

1982 First Team All-American - 1B

Pam Harper was selected as a first-team All-American in 1982. The first baseman made the all-Big Eight team and Big Eight all-tournament team in both 1979 and 1981. She was also a part of the Cowgirls' first Women's College World Series team in 1982 that finished seventh.

Harper, a Tulsa native, ranks in the top 20 in several record lists for a season, including at-bats (11th place with 180), runs scored (12th place with 34), and total bases (13th place with 87). She also hit eight triples in 1980 tying the school record for most in a season.

Many of Harper's statistics still keep her in the top of OSU's career record section. She is tied for second in triples with 10 and is tied for 10th in doubles with 22. She's also in the top 10 for runs scored (sixth with 92), batting average (ninth with a .320 average), hits (sixth with 165), total bases (sixth with 243) and runs batted in (ninth with 72).

C - BARTLESVILLE, OKLA.

1989 First Team All-American - C

Lisa Harvey was a first-team All-America selection in 1989. The catcher from Bartlesville, Okla., was a member of the 1989 Women's College World Series team that finished in a tie for third place. She was selected to the all-Big Eight team in 1988 and 1989 as well as being named to the Big Eight all-tournament team and the all-region team in 1989. Harvey was also an Academic All-American in 1988.

Harvey recorded the second-most putouts in a game with 18 against Louisiana Tech in 1989. Her fielding percentage in 1988 (.996) and 1989 (.994) rank her third and fifth, respectively in the school record books for a season. In 1987, she was hit by a pitch 13 times, the second-most in a single season.

Harvey holds two top-10 spots in career record categories. She is second all-time for her .992 fielding percentage. She was third for all-time hit by pitches with 15.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES - 1982

After three-consecutive appearances in the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) National tournament in 1980, '81 and 1982, Oklahoma State advanced to the first-ever NCAA Women's College World Series in 1982 with a sweep of Cal Poly-Pomona in the Stillwater Regional.

With the two national tournaments interlocking, it was a busy month of May for the Cowgirls. OSU advanced through the Southwest AIAW Tournament in Oklahoma City to qualify for the national tourament. A week later, the Cowgirls were hosting the Broncos in Stillwater.

Four days later, OSU headed down to Norman to compete in the AIAW Women's College World Series. The Cowgirls stomped through the first three games, shutting out Western Illinois (7-0), Utah (2-0) and California (3-0). A 2-1 victory over Michigan sent Oklahoma State into the finals against Texas A&M.

A two-day rain delay postponed the tournament, with the Aggies needing two wins over the Cowgirls since they were coming out of the loser's bracket. A 4-1 victory sent the series into an if-necessary game.

OSU led 3-2 going into the seventh inning of game two, but a double and an error set up the tying run. The Aggies scored two more in the eighth and held the Cowgirls scoreless for the 5-3 win.

The next morning, Oklahoma State left Stillwater at 7 am to make the trek to Omaha, Neb., for the NCAA WCWS, as the Cowgirls were scheduled to play UCLA at 7 pm that evening.

Oklahoma State scored first on Paula Smith's RBI single in the second inning. The Cowgirls held the Bruins scoreless until the bottom of the seventh when UCLA tied the game with the help of an OSU error. Oklahoma State threatened in the ninth and 10th innings, advancing a runner to third each time, but failed to push across the go-ahead run. UCLA centerfielder Gina Vecchione singled to lead off the Bruins' 13th. A double by designated player Sheila Cornell moved Vecchione to third, and Barbara Young singled to left for the 2-1 victory.

The loss gave OSU a much-needed day off on Friday, and the Cowgirls faced Fresno State in an elimination game on Saturday. After a scoreless game through 13 innings, the Bulldogs' Kim Muratore hit a run-scoring double for a 1-0 victory, ending the Cowgirls season. It was a tough road for OSU to follow, as UCLA won the first-ever WCWS and Fresno State finished second.

Oklahoma State fell one win shy of its second-straight 40-win season, ending the year with a 39-15 mark. However, it was the first of many appearances in the Women's College World Series, something those Cowgirls will never forget.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES - 1989

Seven years removed from its first ever NCAA Women's College World Series appearance in 1982, Oklahoma State advanced to its second world series in Sunnyvale, Calif., in the spring of 1989. Finishing the regular season with a 39-4 record and ranked No. 1 in the nation throughout most of the season, the Cowgirls captured the Big Eight title en route to sweeping Wichita State in the Stillwater Regional.

The Cowgirls fared better the second time around in the WCWS. In their first game against Toledo, the game remained scoreless until the bottom of the sixth inning when, with the bases loaded, OSU centerfielder Dee Brewer singled through the middle, scoring LeeAnne Ketcham and Dena Carter to take a 2-0 lead. Later in the inning, Deborah Mobius singled in Smith to give OSU a 3-0 advantage. Toledo took back a run in the top of the seventh, but it was too little, too late. The Cowgirls took game one 3-1, and starter Michele Smith improved her record to 25-2 on the season by holding Toledo to one run on just three hits and one walk.

The next night, the Cowgirls took on Arizona, a team they had defeated twice earlier in the season. The game was once again a pitching duel, this time taking 7-1/3 innings before a run was scored. With two outs in the top of the eighth inning, Ketcham and Smith scored on a bloop single by Mobius to take a 2-0 lead.

During the next at bat, Michelle Shean scored on a wild pitch by Ginnie Scheller. During the same plate appearance, Scheller threw another wild pitch on a 3-2 count that allowed Mobius to score to give the Cowgirls a 4-0 lead. That score would stand as the final. Smith recorded the win, going eight innings, giving up no runs on six hits, walking two and striking out seven.

Game three was the next afternoon against UCLA. As had been the pattern all season, pitching took over. The game remained scoreless until the bottom of the fifth inning when OSU took a 1-0 lead when Smith scored on a single to center by Shean. Unfortunately, that lead did not hold up. UCLA went on to score two runs in the top of the seventh to take a 2-1 lead, which would be the eventual final.

Game four would come only a few hours later on the same day and it would prove to be the Cowgirls final game of the 1989 Women's College World Series. They would fall to Fresno State, 7-0, ending the Cowgirl's title hopes.

The end of the season would leave OSU in third place nationally. However, the 1989 team still stands as one of the best teams in Cowgirl Softball history, finishing the season 46-6 and it wouldn't be long until the Cowgirls received another shot at the title.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES - 1990

A year removed from its best finish in school history, the Oklahoma State softball team returned to the NCAA Women's College World series for a second-straight year. The Cowgirls swept the Big Eight tournament to remain Big Eight champions, and they once again swept the Stillwater Regional to advance to the WCWS. This time, it would be a little closer to home, in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Game one put the Cowgirls head-to-head with a familiar opponent in Arizona, whom they defeated the previous year in the second game of the WCWS. This time, there was a similar outcome. The Cowgirls scored one run in the top of the second when Shawn Gilbert scored on a Shannon Kimberling single up the middle. The Cowgirls added a run in the top of the third and again in the top of the seventh to defeat Arizona, 3-0. Starting pitcher Dena Carter went seven innings, allowing no runs on two hits while striking out one.

Game two came a day later against Florida State. As in typical Cowgirl fashion, defense and pitching continued to be OSU's specialty, leading to a 4-1 victory. The Cowgirls held FSU to one run on four hits through seven innings. Meanwhile, OSU scored three runs in the bottom of the fourth on a single by Carter and an error by the catcher.

Their fourth run came in the bottom of the sixth when Donna Forman doubled to left field, allowing Christi Smith to score from third. Starting pitcher Melanie Roche threw a complete game, allowing one run on four hits and striking out nine batters.

Game three would bring the Cowgirls up against the eventual champions UCLA the following afternoon. The Bruins scored two unearned runs in the bottom of the first inning when with the bases loaded and one out, LeeAnne Ketcham committed an error at shortstop, allowing two runs to score.

Dena Carter started in the circle for OSU and despite not allowing an earned run on four hits, took the loss. The Cowgirls could only muster up one run of support. The lone run came in the top of the seventh when Roche, pinch running for Carter who had drawn a walk, advanced to third on a double by Linda Sodano. With one out, Kimberling singled down the right field line, scoring Roche, but pinch runner Dani Pfeiffer was thrown out at the plate attempting to score. Donna Forman lined out for the final out of the game and a 2-1 Cowgirl loss.

The next afternoon, it was another pitcher's duel as Carter and Fresno State's Marcie Green each threw a shutout through nine innings. A thunderstorm delayed the game, which was resumed the next afternoon. FSU's Carie Dever walked, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt, and advanced to third on a single. On the next at-bat, the Cowgirls attempted to prevent the run from scoring on a fielder's choice, but Kimberling dropped the ball, scoring the only run of the game.

While the Cowgirls didn't get the national championship that they desired, their second-straight third-place finish boosted the program and got them ready for more WCWS appearances and success in the future.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES - 1993

Three years removed from its last NCAA Women's College World Series appearance, the Oklahoma State women's softball team got another chance at a national title. On the way there, the Cowgirls captured their fifth-straight Big Eight Championship and swept Utah State in the Stillwater Regional for the right to go to Oklahoma City.

Game one saw the Cowgirls take on Florida State. OSU struck first in the bottom of the fourth when Linda Sodano scored on a wild pitch and Renee Cline singled up the middle to score Sandra Burkey. Toni Brown would later score on a Melanie Roche sacrifice fly to give the Cowgirls a 3-0 cushion. OSU added two more in the bottom of the fifth. Florida State scored two runs in the top of the seventh, but the Cowgirls eventually ended the game with a 5-2 win. Roche started in the circle and went five innings, allowing no runs on one hit while striking out seven.

Game two the next day against defending champions UCLA would prove to be a classic. The game when 12 scoreless innings, with only five hits scattered throughout the first seven innings. The winning run came in walk-off fashion in the bottom of the 13th inning when with one out, Shyla Sicks hit a bloop single to center which allowed Kendra Hanes to score the winning run. Roche threw all 13 innings, allowing no runs on five hits. She struck out four while walking three.

The following game proved to be another extra-innings battle against eventual champion Arizona. The game remained scoreless until the bottom of the ninth when Arizona scored with one out for a 1-0 walk-off victory. Roche, who pitched extra-inning games on consecutive nights, went 8-1/3, allowing just one run despite giving up 12 hits.

The Cowgirls' final game of the 1993 season would come a few hours after the game-three loss. OSU would partake in a rematch against UCLA, however, the outcome was much different. The Cowgirls couldn't manage a run in seven innings and fell 5-0, ending their national title hopes. Roche pitched 4-1/3 innings, allowing five runs on six hits.

This trip to the WCWS had the Cowgirls play eight total extra innings in their four games and 16 total innings on their final day of competition and defeat the defending champions in a classic.

Shortstop April Austin and Roche were both named to the all-tournament team. The Cowgirls finished the season 50-9, one win shy of the school record.

Roche was a first-team All-American, while outfielder K.K. McCoy was named to the third team.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES - 1994

A year removed from another trip to the Women's College World Series, the 1994 Oklahoma State softball team was poised for another trip to Oklahoma City. The Cowgirls returned eight starters and three All-Big Eight honorees from the squad that finished in fourth place the year before. The Cowgirls won their sixth-straight Big Eight title and swept the Stillwater Regional to earn another trip to OKC.

Game one of the WCWS didn't go the way the Cowgirls expected. The game remained scoreless through seven innings. In the eighth inning, Utah scored two, all it needed in a 2-0 win. Amy Day threw all eight innings, allowing two runs on five hits while striking out eight.

The Cowgirls rebounded in their second game, this time against Big Eight-rival Missouri. The Cowgirls scored one in the top of the first when Kim Ward scored on a single by Michelle Kelly. However, the Tigers responded in the bottom of the frame to tie the game, and in the bottom of the second, scored two to take a 3-1 lead.

OSU tied it up at 3-3 in the top of the fourth when Ward and Kelly scored on an error by the MU third baseman. The Cowgirls regained the lead in the top of the sixth when Kelly scored on a single by Tonia Brown. Later in the inning, Karie Langelier hit a two-run home run to give OSU a 6-3 cushion. The Cowgirls added one more in the top of the seventh and Missouri was never able to catch up, allowing OSU to take game two, 7-3. Ward threw seven innings, allowing three runs on five hits, striking out five.

Game three came later that night against Fresno State. The Cowgirls allowed pitching to take over in this game, scoring one run in the bottom of the fifth when Brown scored on a single by April Austin. They added another run in the bottom of the sixth on a fielder's choice. The Cowgirls won the game 2-0 and Day went seven innings, allowing no runs on four hits and striking out seven.

Game four against Cal State-Northridge would prove to be an instant classic for the Cowgirls. In the game, OSU struck first in the top of the fourth when Kelly singled in Amanda Emmons to take a 1-0 lead. Northridge responded in the bottom half, only for OSU to retake the lead in the top of the fifth when Langelier scored on a single by Austin. Northridge tied the game at 2-2 in the bottom of the sixth, and nine extra innings were needed to decide the outcome.

The Cowgirls scored one run in the top of the 15th inning when Koni Couts scored on a sacrifice fly by Austin. The 3-2 score would hold up, giving the Cowgirls the victory. Ward went six innings, allowing two runs on five hits and striking out seven. In relief, Day went nine innings, allowing no runs on four hits and striking out five. The 15-inning affair is the longest game the Cowgirls have ever played in the WCWS.

A rematch against Northridge in the semifinals didn't have the same outcome as OSU fell to the Matadors 4-2, ending its WCWS hopes.

Austin, Day and Ward were all named to the all-tournament team, with Ward and Day earning All-America honors.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES - 1998

After a four-year hiatus from its last Women's College World Series, the Oklahoma State softball team made their return to Oklahoma City in 1998. After tying for third place at the Big 12 Tournament, the Cowgirls wondered where they'd be sent for the NCAAs.

After the first seven regionals were announced, with OSU not mentioned once, the final regional came on the board. Stanford, the top seed, would play Missouri State while third-seeded Florida State would play the Cowgirls ... in Stillwater!

Oklahoma State defeated the Seminoles 4-0, then defeated the MSU Bears, 4-0 as well. The Cowgirls defeated Stanford 4-0 in what appeared to be destiny and went on to their sixth WCWS appearance.

As winners of the No. 8 regional, Oklahoma State was set up to face top-ranked Arizona in the first round. The game proved to be a pitching duel between OSU's Jenn Markert and the Wildcats' Nancy Evans. In the end, the Wildcats won 1-0 on a solo home run by Leticia Piñeda.

With a day off to regroup, game two involved a match-up with the UMass Minutewomen. The Cowgirls were going to face UMass's top pitcher, Danielle Henderson, who had the nation's best ERA and only allowed one home run all season.

However, OSU had other plans. Liz Silva, Kristi Bolle and Shannon Sullivan would all hit homers and propel the Cowgirls to a 6-0 victory. It set a record for most home runs by a team in a single game at the WCWS.

Game three saw a rematch between OSU and Michigan from earlier in the season when the Wolverines defeated the Cowgirls in the finals of the NFCA Leadoff Classic. Luckily, this game had a different outcome. The Cowgirls scored two first-inning runs without a hit. Michigan All-American Sara Griffin walked two, and the Wolverines committed two errors, the latter a boot by second baseman Melissa Taylor on Jaime Foutch's hard bouncer, allowing two runs to score. The Cowgirls eventually won 3-1, and in the process earned their fourth win over a ranked opponent in six games.

Next up was a rematch with Arizona. The outcome was unfortunately the same for Oklahoma State as the Wildcats defeated the Cowgirls 5-0. Markert gave up two two-run homers, and with Evans pitching again for the Wildcats, Arizona shut down the Cowgirls on two hits.

Oklahoma State finished fourth in the WCWS and was ranked fourth in the final NFCA poll. Third baseman Kristi Bölle received all-tournament team accolades, and Jaime Foutch was named a first-team All-American.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES - 2011

It didn't take head coach Rich Wieligman long to return the Cowgirls to national prominence. Oklahoma State had not been to the Women's College World Series in 13 years, and although the 2011 squad had played well throughout the season, a six-game losing streak to wrap up the regular-season schedule.

After being swept by Missouri, Texas A&M and Nebraska to wrap up Big 12 play, the Cowgirls limped into the NCAA Tournament, serving as the No. 3 seed in the Knoxville Regional. OSU faced No. 2 seed Georgia Tech in the first game, and a walk-off single by Julie Ward scored Kelsey Anchors from second to give the Cowgirls a 2-1 victory over the 19th-ranked Yellow Jackets.

In a winner's bracket game against host and No. 5 Tennessee, Alysia Hamilton went 3-for-3 with a single, a double and a home run, and Kat Espinosa continued to pitch well as the Cowgirls defeated the Lady Volunteers 6-1. Tennessee went on to defeat Georgia Tech and set up a rematch in the regional finals, with the Volunteers needing two wins over Oklahoma State.

In the regional finals, the Cowgirls took a 3-0 lead in the bottom of the third, but Tennessee bounced back, scoring one run in the top of the fourth and three in the fifth.

In the bottom of the sixth, Tarah Ettinger hit a bases-loaded double, scoring two and giving OSU a 6-4 lead. In the top half of the seventh, UT had runners on first and second with no outs. A groundout moved both runners up, and a sacrifice fly made the score 6-5 OSU. Tennessee's Lauren Gibson hit a drive to left field, with a runner on second, but Tamara Brown charged the ball and nabbed it cleanly, throwing a strike to Ashley Boyd at home and getting the final out of the game.

Thanks to an upset by the Houston Cougars over the Texas Longhorns, the Cowgirls received the Super Regional bid to host UH. Oklahoma State took the first game, 3-0, but fell to the upstart Cougars, 1-0, in game two, setting up an if-necessary contest.

OSU began the deciding game with a three-run first inning, but Houston responded in the bottom of the frame with two runs of its own. The Cougars jumped in front in the third with a two-run home run, giving UH a 4-3 lead.

In the fifth, a walk, a single by Hamilton, and another walk loaded the bases for Chelsea Garcia, who tied the game with an RBI groundout. Hamilton then scored from third on a wild pitch, putting OSU back on top 5-4.

Brown provided what would prove to be the winning run with a double to put OSU ahead 6-4. The Cougars hit a pinch-hit solo home run to lead off the bottom of the seventh, but the infield recorded two outs and Espinosa struck out the final batter, sending the Cowgirls to Oklahoma City.

OSU faced Big 12-rival Baylor, whom the Cowgirls swept earlier in the season in Waco, in the first game of the WCWS. After a scoreless seven innings by both pitchers, BU's Kelsi Kettler hit a solo home run in the bottom of the eighth for the heartbreaking 1-0 loss in front of 7,280 fans, a Session 1 attendance record.

The Cowgirls faced California in an elimination game, and despite a hard-fought battle, OSU eventually fell to the Bears, 6-2, and ended the season at 42-20. However, it was a return to a pinnacle Oklahoma State had regularly frequented, and hopes to do again soon.

University

With more than 350 undergraduate and graduate degrees and options, as well as professional degree programs in medicine and veterinary medicine, OSU provides unmatched diversity of academic offerings.

OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

Oklahoma's only university with a statewide presence, Oklahoma State University is a five-campus, public educational system that improves the lives of people in Oklahoma, the nation, and the world by adhering to its land-grant mission of high-quality teaching, research and outreach.

OSU research, scholarship, and creative activities promote human and economic development through the expansion of knowledge and its application.

Established as a result of the Morrill Act, the Stillwater campus is the home of the OSU System. OSU was founded on Dec. 25, 1890, as Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College. On July 1, 1957, Oklahoma A&M College became Oklahoma State University.

The OSU System has an enrollment of more than 35,000 students across all its campuses. Named Oklahoma's inaugural Truman Honor Institution for its production of Truman Scholars, OSU today boasts students from all 50 states and more than 100 nations. There are more than 250,000 OSU alumni throughout the world.

When it comes to outreach, OSU reaches across the state of Oklahoma. It has five campuses: Stillwater, which includes the Center for Veterinary Health Sciences; OSU-Tulsa; OSU-Oklahoma City; OSU Institute of Technology in Okmulgee; and the OSU Center for Health Sciences in Tulsa, which includes the OSU Medical Center. OSU also boasts 16 agricultural experiment stations statewide, extension offices serving all the state's 77 counties and research facilities in Stillwater and Tulsa.

With more than 350 undergraduate and graduate degrees and options, as well as professional degree programs in medicine and veterinary medicine, OSU provides unmatched diversity of academic offerings.
OSU conducts innovative research and technology transfer that enhance Oklahoma's economic vitality and its quality of life. The focus has expanded greatly since 1890, but the third cornerstone of the university's land-grant mission remains as crucial for the future of Oklahoma as it was at statehood. Interdisciplinary collaborations with academic institutions, government agencies, private business, and industry ensure that contributions of faculty and student researchers to the development of new knowledge and its dissemination are pertinent and lasting.

Areas of emphasis include: alternative energies and conservation; animal-based agriculture and biotechnology; environmental protection; food production and safety; health and medicine; manufacturing and advanced materials; national defense and homeland security; sensors and sensor technologies; aerospace and unmanned aerial systems; and transportation and infrastructure

Although OSU is a large, comprehensive university, its size does not minimize the personal attention given to each student. OSU encourages all students when they first enroll to identify the college in which they wish to major. Because the average number of students majoring in any one department is less than 150, the student can count on personal attention in a friendly environment.

OSU offers students many distinct advantages. It has nearly four million volumes in the library; modern research laboratories and equipment; excellent physical education, recreation and student union facilities; nationally-recognized residence hall programs; outstanding cultural and sporting events; more than 500 student organizations; and nearly 50 nationally affiliated fraternities and sororities that provide a stimulating educational and social environment.

UNIVERSITY HISTORY

The story of Oklahoma State University began on Christmas Eve, 1890, at the McKennon Opera House in Oklahoma's territorial capital of Guthrie when Territorial Governor George W. Steele signed legislation establishing an Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College (OAMC) in Payne County.

OAMC's first students assembled for class on Dec. 14, 1891, even though there were no buildings, no books, and no curriculum. The college's first students attended classes in the Stillwater Congregational Church. The original campus consisted of 200 acres of prairie that were donated by four local homesteaders. The college's first six graduates received their diplomas in 1896.

Visitors to the OSU campus often marvel at its beauty and consistency of architecture. Much of the credit goes to legendary president, Henry G. Bennett, who served from 1928-1951. Dr. Bennett's 25-year campus master plan envisioned some of the university's most famous and beautiful structures, including the Edmon Low Library and the OSU Student Union.

A new campus master plan is guiding unprecedented construction that is making OSU more competitive in academics and athletics. Since the fall of 2008, OSU has opened the Multimodal Transportation Terminal, the North Classroom Building, the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium, a refurbished Old Central, the Donald W. Reynolds Architecture Building, an upgraded Murray Hall, the Henry Bellmon Research Center and a renovated Student Union, considered the most comprehensive union in the country. Most recently, the university has opened University Commons residential life facility, Bert Cooper Engineering Structures Lab, a new information technology building, library annex, Greenwood Tennis Center, a new outdoor track, a renovated Atherton Hotel, a new wing to the College of Human Sciences building, the Ferguson Family Dairy Center, a new business building, a new Central Plant, and the Endeavor engineering lab. The McKnight Center for the Performing Arts will open in 2019. Hall of Fame Avenue on the north, University Avenue on the south, and Monroe Street through the campus core have been significantly upgraded, and the university is making numerous upgrades to its campus landscape.

OSU grew quite rapidly following World War II. The post-war years were marked by a huge enrollment surge. The mid-1940s also were a golden era for athletics at Oklahoma A&M. In a 90-day period in early 1945, A&M teams won the Cotton Bowl, the NCAA championship in wrestling, and the NCAA championship in basketball. The next year, the wrestling and basketball teams repeated as national champions, and the football team won the Sugar Bowl to clinch a national title, which was retroactively awarded by the Football Writers Association of America.

By the 1950s, the college had grown substantially. In 1957, Oklahoma A&M became The Oklahoma State University for Agriculture and Applied Science.

During the next three decades, OSU would build academic programs to match its new status. Enrollment more than doubled from 10,385 in 1957 to more than 23,000 in the 1980s. OSU became a statewide university system, adding branches in Okmulgee in 1946 and Oklahoma City in 1961. OSU merged with the Oklahoma College of Osteopathic Medicine in 1988, and OSU-Tulsa was born in 1999.

Today, OSU has more than 35,000 students across five campuses and a presence in every Oklahoma county through its extension offices and experiment stations. From six graduates in 1896, to more than 7,000 annually today, the small college on the prairie has grown and prospered far beyond the dreams of its founders. OSU teaching, research and graduates are making a bigger impact on the lives of people around the world than ever before. It's a great time to be a Cowboy!

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT BURNS HARGIS

COWBOYS

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
11TH YEAR

Burns Hargis was named the 18th President of Oklahoma State University and the OSU System in December 2007 and took office March 10, 2008.

Hargis oversees one of the nation's most comprehensive land-grant university systems with more than 35,000 students, 7,400 employees, and campuses located in Stillwater, Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Okmulgee.

He has guided OSU to record enrollment and record fund-raising, reaching the $1 billion Branding Success campaign goal in April 2013, nearly two years ahead of schedule. The campaign focused on student scholarships, faculty and other vital resources and programs. He also is overseeing a construction boom that is transforming the OSU campus to be more competitive in academics and athletics.

Hargis has a bold vision of creating a modern land-grant university that cuts across disciplines to better prepare students for success.

Hargis, who holds degrees in accounting from Oklahoma State University and in law from the University of Oklahoma, is the second OSU graduate to lead the university as president. Oliver S. Willham, who served as president from 1952 to 1966, graduated from then Oklahoma A&M in 1923.

He is past chairman of the Big 12 Conference Board of Directors and represents the conference as a member of the NCAA Division I Board of Directors and the NCAA Board of Governors.

Before being named OSU President, Hargis had a long and distinguished legal and business career, with active civic and philanthropic leadership across many fronts. He also is familiar to many Oklahomans through the political perspective and wit he provided on the award-winning television program "Flashpoint".

Prior to coming to OSU, he was Vice Chairman of Bank of Oklahoma, N.A. Before joining Bank of Oklahoma in 1997, Hargis practiced law in Oklahoma City for 28 years, most recently with the firm of McAfee & Taft. He is a former president of the Oklahoma County Bar Association, former president of the Oklahoma Bar Foundation, and is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

Hargis served as vice-chairman of the Oklahoma State Election Board, the Oklahoma Constitutional Revision Commission, and served as Chairman of the Oklahoma Commission for Human Services. Hargis was a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Oklahoma in 1990.

A firm believer in the power of imagination and collaboration, Hargis was the first chair of the Oklahoma Creativity Project. He has served and chaired many boards, including the Board of Regents for the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges of Oklahoma State University.

Hargis received the state's highest honor when he was inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame in 2009. Hargis and his wife, Ann, have two married children and three grandchildren.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE HOLDER

MIKE HOLDER

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR
14TH YEAR | OKLAHOMA STATE, 1970

Mike Holder won eight NCAA team titles as head men's golf coach at Oklahoma State from 1973-2005, but what he's done for his alma mater while serving as athletic director since then is perhaps even more remarkable, especially in the realm of facilities and fundraising.

FACILITIES

When Holder took over as athletic director on September 16, 2005, he set out an audacious facilities master plan that has nearly come to fruition.

The facilities renaissance was actually set into motion during Holder's coaching days when he was a central figure in bringing Karsten Creek Golf Course into existence. The home of Cowboy and Cowgirl golf is widely recognized among the very best public courses in the nation and hosted the NCAA Championships in 2003, 2011 and 2018, along with several men's and women's NCAA regionals.

Holder's first major facilities move as athletic director came with a total overhaul of Boone Pickens Stadium that was completed in 2009. With Holder serving as athletic director, both the north and the west sides of the stadium were brought to their current form and the stadium is now recognized as one of the finest in college football.

Built from the ground up during Holder's tenure as athletic director are the Sherman Smith Indoor Training Center and the Michael and Anne Greenwood Tennis Center. Located right across the street from Boone Pickens Stadium, the 94,000-square-foot Smith Center serves nearly all of Oklahoma State's teams and is the primary practice home for Cowboy football. Just north of that is the 50,000-square-foot Greenwood Tennis Center, which was completed in 2014 and in 2016, was recognized by the United States Tennis Association as the nation's outstanding college tennis facility.

The soccer program moves into a new $20 million home in 2018. The sparkling new facility is a showcase for college soccer with club seats, plaza and upper bowl gathering areas and a north end zone terrace area and seating designed specifically for OSU students. Team facilities include locker rooms, meeting areas, kitchen facilities, sports medicine areas and equipment rooms.

In the spring of 2018, Holder announced plans for a new baseball complex that is scheduled to be ready in time for the 2020 season. Inspired by Boone Pickens Stadium and promising to be among the elite college baseball facilities in the country, the $75 million home of the Cowboys will include approximately 3,500 permanent seats, 13 suites and 400 premium seats in dedicated club and suite areas. Seating can be expanded to 8,000 as needed.

FUNDRAISING

Any discussion about fundraising at Oklahoma State must start with Holder's close friend, Boone Pickens, who has given more than $500 million to his alma mater. Holder's vision for athletic facilities inspired Pickens to give $165 million toward the project in 2006, marking the largest donation in the history of college athletics.

At Holder's urging, OSU Athletics has placed an emphasis on scholarship endowments. The "Leave A Legacy" endowment drive has seen Oklahoma State climb from dead last in the Big 12 to the top with gifts and commitments of approximately $61 million. As recently as 2009, OSU's endowment stood at just $2.1 million.

Perhaps Holder's adept fundraising stems from his "fundgiving". He and his wife, Robbie, illustrated their commitment to Oklahoma State when they donated $500,000 for the first fully endowed scholarship for Cowboy football. The scholarship is named for former OSU player, the late Vernon Grant. The Holders' lifetime giving to OSU surpasses $2.5 million, including $1 million for an entrepreneurship super chair at OSU in the Spears School of Business.

"Robbie and I made the gift to the college of business because of (OSU donors) Malone and Amy Mitchell," Holder said at the announcement. "Having two degrees in business was the icing on the cake. I would like to see the new program nationally recognized and make a difference in the lives of young people."

Malone and Amy Mitchell had made a $57.2 million gift to OSU, split evenly between athletics and academics, on the day the Holders announced their $1 million gift.

SUCCESS IN COMPETITION

Oklahoma State has won six NCAA team titles under Holder's watch and entering the 2018-19 academic year, 11 different OSU programs have combined to win 49 conference titles with Holder in the athletic director's chair. Locally, OSU has won the all-sports Bedlam Series over in-state rival Oklahoma in each of the past five academic years.

Holder has presided over the best sustained era in Cowboy football history. The Pokes won the Big 12 Conference title outright in 2011 and have appeared in 12 straight bowl games, with four appearances in New Year's Six contests since 2010. In that same time span, the Cowboys have averaged 9.8 wins per season and rank 10th nationally with 78 wins this decade.

BACKGROUND IN GOLF

During his tenure as OSU men's golf coach, Holder's successes included not only his team's results on the course, but his players' performances in the classroom and beyond.

In 2000, Holder's Cowboy golf team claimed the national championship, marking the eighth time his squad carried home the NCAA trophy. And while high national finishes are the norm at Oklahoma State, the accomplishments of his teams never stopped at the 18th hole.

Holder took over his OSU coaching post on July 1, 1973, and during his tenure, his teams set student-athlete standards that were unequaled. While he coached 112 All-America selections, including 38 first-team choices, and has numerous former players competing on the PGA Tour, overseas and on mini-tours, Holder saw to it that his players also excelled in the classroom. During his tenure, OSU produced three Ben Hogan Award winners, which was based on academic and athletic excellence nationwide. Kevin Wentworth earned the honor in 1990, Trip Kuehne claimed the prestigious award in 1995 and Hunter Mahan was named the 2003 recipient. Kuehne was OSU's outstanding male graduate in 1995 as well.

Holder is one of five coaches in NCAA history, regardless of sport, to win a national championship in four different decades. Three times Holder coached the Cowboys to the national team title the same year an OSU individual also claimed medalist honors (1978, 1987 and 2000). Along the way, he claimed 25 conference championships. His 21 Big Eight championships were the second most by a head coach in any sport, trailing only Kansas basketball coach Phog Allen.

As a student-athlete, Holder was the 1970 Big Eight medalist and led OSU to the conference team title. He was a third-team All-American as a junior and a senior and an honorable mention All-American as a sophomore.

PERSONAL

A graduate of Ardmore HS, Holder earned his degree in marketing from Oklahoma State in 1970 and completed work on his MBA at OSU in 1973. His wife, Robbie, graduated as salutatorian from Jasper High School in 1966, and attended the University of Houston where they met at the All-American Intercollegiate golf tournament in 1968.

Very few athletic departments produce the kind of consistent success found at Oklahoma State.

OSU boasts NCAA team championships in five different sports – wrestling (34 titles), men's golf (11 titles), men's cross country (four titles), men's basketball (two titles) and baseball (one title). Additionally, OSU football and equestrian have been recognized as national champions by other organizations, with football honored as the American Football Coaches Association national champion in 1945 and equestrian winning four team national titles as recognized by the National Collegiate Equestrian Association.

Counting NCAA team titles plus football, OSU has won 53 national championships - a mark that ranks fifth among all Division I schools.

That same success translates on the conference level, where Oklahoma State has amassed 405 team conference championships entering the 2018-19 academic year. A team-by-team look at OSU athletics:

MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY/TRACK AND FIELD

Oklahoma State has won three NCAA cross country team championships since 2009 and finished in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships in six of the last nine seasons. The Cowboys have won nine of the last 10 Big 12 team titles.

OSU won the 2014 and 2016 Big 12 Indoor Track and Field team championships and placed 15th at the 2016 NCAA outdoor championships. A Cowboy has won an NCAA title in two of the past four outdoor seasons, with Chad Noelle winning the 1,500 meters in 2015 and Nick Miller winning the hammer throw in 2016. Hassan Abdi was the 2017 Big 12 cross country individual champion.

The 2018 squad led the Big 12 with 25 Academic All-Big 12 honorees, 19 of which earned a spot on the first team.

WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY/TRACK AND FIELD

The Cowgirls won the 2015 Big 12 cross country title and have placed in the top four at the Big 12 meet in each of the past seven seasons. For context, OSU had only three top-three finishes at the Big 12 meet from 1990-2010.

Kaela Edwards won the 2016 NCAA indoor mile championship and as a team, OSU placed 10th at the 2016 NCAA indoor meet and 12th at the NCAA outdoor meet - both of which marked the best in program history.

In 2018, the Cowgirls ranked second in the league with 29 Academic All-Big 12 honorees and had three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in Stephanie Ferrante, Emily Hart and Ariane Ballner.

SOCCER

Champions of the Big 12 in 2017, the Cowgirls have earned berths in 10 of the last 12 NCAA Championships and advanced to the Elite Eight in 2010 and 2011. From

The Cowboy golf program won its 11th NCAA team title in 2018.

2008-11, OSU celebrated four consecutive Big 12 championships. Forward Courtney Dike played in the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup.

In 2017, the Cowgirls matched a program record with 15 Academic All-Big 12 honorees.

FOOTBALL

Mike Gundy has coached the Cowboys to a bowl game now referred to as one of the New Year's Six four times since 2010. The Pokes appeared in the 2010 Cotton Bowl, the 2012 Fiesta Bowl, the 2014 Cotton Bowl and the 2016 Sugar Bowl. OSU posted three consecutive 10-win seasons in 2015, 2016 and 2017. Notable products of Cowboy football include 1988 Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders, five-time NFL Pro Bowler Thurman Thomas and current NFL Pro Bowlers Russell Okung, Dez Bryant and Dan Bailey.

In 2017, three Cowboys earned CoSIDA Academic All-America status and the OSU football program posted a perfect score of 1,000 on the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR).

MEN'S BASKETBALL

With two national championships, six appearances in the Final Four, 11 appearances in the Elite Eight and 14 trips to the Sweet 16, OSU basketball is a consistent power. The Cowboys have won 20 games or more in 21 of the last 28 seasons.

In 2017, Cowboy point guard Jawun Evans became the 22nd All-American in program history. Other notable OSU products include Hall of Famers Henry Iba and Bob Kurland, plus coach Eddie Sutton. Two of the NBA's fiercest defensive standouts - Marcus Smart of the Boston Celtics and Tony Allen of the Memphis Grizzlies - hail from Oklahoma State.

In the classroom, the men's basketball program recorded a perfect score of 1,000 on the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR).

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

OSU has eight NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 12 seasons and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2008 and 2014. The Cowgirls have won 148 games over the past seven years (21.1 wins per season) and produced the 2016 Big 12 Player of the Year in Brittney Martin and the 2016 Big 12 Coach of the Year in Jim Littell.

Six Cowgirls earned Academic All-Big 12 honors in 2018 and guard Loryn Goodwin was the 18th overall pick in the WNBA Draft.

EQUESTRIAN

Winners of five of the past seven Big 12 team titles, including the 2018 crown, the Cowgirls have four national championships to their credit (2000, 2003, 2004 and 2006). OSU added Western titles in 2005 and 2013. In 2018, six Cowgirls earned All-America status and 28 secured spots on the NCEA Academic Honor Roll.

WRESTLING

The winningest program in all of North American sports - NCAA or professional - Cowboy wrestling boasts 34 NCAA team championships and 142 NCAA individual crowns. The Cowboys have won nine of the last 10 Big 12 team titles and produced the 2016 Hodge Trophy winner in Alex Dieringer. OSU was the 2016 NCAA runner-up and finished third at NCAAs in 2017.

When the NCAA released its Academic Progress Rate (APR) data in 2018, Cowboy Wrestling posted an outstanding 991 score out of a possible 1,000 points for the previous academic year.

SOFTBALL

OSU has made seven trips to the Women's College World Series, the most recent of which came in 2011. Cowgirls Melanie Roche, Michele Smith and Lauren Bay all represented their countries in the Olympics. OSU advanced to the regional final at the NCAA Championships in both 2016 and 2017.

Vanessa Shippy was the Big 12 Player of the Year in 2016 and 2018 and became the first Cowgirl to be named an All-American on the field and also a CoSIDA Academic All-American for her work in the classroom three consecutive years.

The softball program posted a perfect score of 1,000 on the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) data released in 2018.

MEN'S GOLF

A truly elite program within the sport, Oklahoma State won the 2018 NCAA team championship - the 11th in program history - and claims eight NCAA individual champions and 54 conference titles all-time.

Included on Cowboy golf's list of alumni are PGA performers Rickie Fowler, Hunter Mahan, Peter Uihlein, Morgan Hoffmann, Alex Noren, Charles Howell III, Bo Van Pelt, Scott Verplank and Kevin Tway.

The Cowboys were honored by the NCAA for posting a perfect multi-year score of 1,000 in each of the last two rounds of Academic Progress Rate (APR) data.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Seven of the past 13 Big 12 Golfers of the Year have come from Oklahoma State and Courtney Jones was named Big 12 Coach of the Year in 2016 after leading the Cowgirls to the conference crown. Of the 22 Big 12 Championships contested since the league's inception, the Cowgirls have won nine - nearly twice as many as any other school.

Kenzie Neisen won the Big 12 individual title in 2015 and 2016.

MEN'S TENNIS

The Cowboys have piled up 18 conference championships through the years and have competed in the NCAA Championships in 12 of the last 16 seasons, including a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2016. Jay Udwadia was honored as the ITA Central Region Coach of the Year in 2017 and led the program to a perfect score of 1,000 in the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) data released in 2018.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The Cowgirls were 2016 NCAA runner-up, have advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight in two of the past three seasons and won both the Big 12 regular season title and the conference tournament in 2016, with head coach Chris Young earning Big 12 Coach of the Year accolades for his efforts.

OSU has produced at least one All-American in each of the last five seasons, including Vladica Babic and Sofia Blanco, who advanced to the NCAA doubles title match in 2018. One of four Cowgirls named to the Academic All-Big 12 team, Blanco was also named a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2018.

BASEBALL

One of the sport's most revered programs, Oklahoma State has made 44 trips to the NCAA Tournament, 20 trips to the College World Series and boasts 32 conference championships, including the 2017 Big 12 title. In Robin Ventura and Pete Incaviglia, the Cowboys claim two of the greatest college baseball players of all time. OSU has made six straight trips to the NCAA tournament, with Super Regional appearances in 2014 and 2016 and a College World Series trip in 2016.

MR. T. BOONE PICKENS

T. Boone Pickens is arguably OSU's (and the state's) most visible personality. His various endeavors and colorful demeanor have been chronicled on the covers of most American business publications and by some of the most-watched television programs in the country.

During the span of his long career, T. Boone Pickens has created thousands of jobs and made billions of dollars— for others as well as himself — and he isn't timid about spreading it around. "I like making money. I like giving it away…. not as much as I like making it, but it's a close second," he has often said.

The breadth of his philanthropy — which approaches $1 billion during his career — includes health and medical research, treatment and services; entrepreneurship; kids at risk; education and athletics, with a particular focus on his alma mater, Oklahoma State University; corporate health and fitness; and conservation and wildlife management. While many donations involve tens of millions of dollars and attract headlines, there are hundreds more ranging from hundreds of thousands to several hundred. Each is important in its own way.

The establishment of the T. Boone Pickens Foundation has ensured his continued ranking as one of the top U.S. philanthropists. The Pickens Foundation is improving lives through grants supporting educational programs, medical research, athletics and corporate wellness, at-risk youths, the entrepreneurial process and conservation and wildlife initiatives.

In 2007, Pickens brought his innovative entrepreneurial approach to the philanthropic sector, announcing the Foundation's largest gifts yet — $50 million each for two University of Texas health care institutions: UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas and The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston. Under unique agreements, the gifts create special funds at the institutions, requiring that they grow to $1 billion ($500 million each) within 25 years from earnings on the original principal and/or from new outside donations solicited by the institutions. When the $500 million marks are reached, the institutions will be able to distribute the funds as they deem fit.

In many ways, Pickens is a record-setting philanthropist. His $165 million gift to his alma mater, Oklahoma State University, in 2005 is the single largest gift for athletics in NCAA history, and the $7 million donation to the American Red Cross in 2005 is the largest individual contribution in the 150-year history of that organization. His unprecedented giving to athletics has triggered a renaissance in Oklahoma State University's football program and was a key factor in its first Big 12 championship in 2011 and its first BCS Bowl win in the Fiesta Bowl matchup with Stanford in 2012.

On May 21, 2008, Pickens gave $100 million for the endowment of major faculty chairs and professorships at Oklahoma State University. The OSU School of Geology already bears his name from previous gifts to OSU.

Over the years, Pickens has donated over $500 million to Oklahoma State, split virtually equally between athletics and academics.

In 2010, OSU launched its campus-wide "Branding Success" campaign and T. Boone Pickens again led the charge with yet another $120 million gift to his alma mater.

Recently, Pickens has become a national and indeed a world leader on the energy front with the launching of the Pickens Plan, which is a unique private sector initiative formed to address the economic and national security threats posed by America's ever-increasing reliance on OPEC oil.

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 is in its 23rd year in 2018-19 as it continues to promote the strength and success of one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of seventh-year commissioner Bob Bowlsby.

TCU and West Virginia joined the league on July 1, 2012 and became the Big 12's first additions since inception, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech.

With 10 members, the Big 12 remains as the only autonomy conference to determine its champions in all sports directly on the field of play with a full round-robin schedule. The Conference's hard work ethic and strong values have translated to enormous success in its first 22 years. Since it began competition in 1996-97, the league can boast of 60 NCAA team titles and 654 individual national championships.

The Big 12 has been at the forefront in college athletics reform, specifically with student-athlete welfare issues to include cost of attendance, student-athlete time demands and strengthening its policy for concussion diagnosis and management. In 2014-15, the Big 12 introduced and hosted three "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums to examine the issues facing college athletics. Two were conducted in Washington, D.C and one in New York City. Panelists included respected authorities from intercollegiate athletics, university leadership and sports journalism. The third forum featured a special session comprised of student-athletes. The Big 12 has continued the "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums the past four seasons with Dallas serving as the host site for three events and one staged in Atlanta.

Big 12 Champions for Life, an initiative of the Big 12 Conference, will begin its fourth year in 2018-19. It features student-athletes, selected by Conference institutions, in a series of public service announcements highlighting the positive impact an athletics scholarship has had on their lives leading to stories of personal growth and success.

The Big 12 was the only conference in 2017-18 that placed a team in the College Football Playoff (Oklahoma), Men's Final Four (Kansas), Men's College World Series (Texas and Texas Tech) and Women's College World Series (Oklahoma). National championships were won by Texas men's swimming & diving and Oklahoma State men's golf. UT's title was its fourth-consecutive while the Big 12 picked up its second straight men's golf crown with Oklahoma winning it in 2017. Of the eight teams that advanced to match play in the men's golf championship, half of the field represented the Big 12.

For the first time in Conference history, the Big 12 sent 90% of its men's basketball teams to postseason play with seven in the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship and two in the National Invitation Tournament. The Big 12 is the first league since at least 1996-97 to accomplish this feat. The Conference's 70% participation in the NCAA Championship was the highest of all leagues.

The Big 12 led the nation in the fall of 2017 with 80% of its teams selected to bowl games highlighted by No. 2 Oklahoma competing in the CFP Semifinal at the Rose Bowl. The Big 12 had at least 80% of teams bowl eligible for the third time in Conference history (90% in 2010 and 80% in 2011). It marked just the 14th occasion since 1996 that an FBS league had at least 80% of teams with 6-plus wins. The Big 12 has made six appearances in a CFP News Year's Bowl in the four years of the structure.

Additionally, the Big 12 added its sixth Heisman Trophy winner since 1996 with Baker Mayfield (Oklahoma) taking home the 2017 award. The Conference has had a finalist in 14 of its seasons for a total of 19 with two finalists in five seasons. Thirty-eight major individual awards have been won by Big 12 student-athletes in football over the past nine campaigns. Overall, more than 4,800 student-athletes have earned All-America recognition.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community, the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Ty Darlington (Oklahoma) was the recipient of the 2015 William V. Campbell Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman. Gabe Ikard (Oklahoma) was presented the NCAA Today's Top 10 Award in January 2015. It recognizes former student-athletes for their successes on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. Since 1996, the Big 12 has a total of 11 honorees for this prestigious award. In the last seven seasons, 14 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 Award with Oklahoma State's Noah Gade (cross country), Oklahoma's Lily Miyazaki (women's tennis) and Baylor's Colin Kober (men's golf) picking up the most recent honors in 2017-18. The accolade showcases individuals who have reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level, while also achieving the highest academic standard among their peers.

In its short history, the Big 12 has over 650 Academic All-America recipients, averaging about 30 each season. Big 12 student-athletes have shown commitment to their studies by earning numerous individual academic recognitions. Thirteen times in the past 14 years a league athlete has garnered the top academic honor for their respective sport, including Jevon Carter (West Virginia) for men's basketball in 2017-18.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships. A total of 421 scholars have received over $3.1 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 22 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.

Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses five states and nearly 38 million people. Nearly 5,000 student-athletes from across the United States and around the World compete annually in the sports sponsored by the Conference.

The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 21 of its 23 sports with the Football Championship Game returning in 2017 after a six-year absence. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition.

The Conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

STILLWATER, OKLAHOMA

Located in north central Oklahoma, Stillwater provides a college-town atmosphere with big-city access. Stillwater Regional Airport (SWO) offers two – three daily flights to and from American Airlines' largest hub at the Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport (DFW), so the possibilities for stress-free traveling to and from Stillwater are endless.

Stillwater, with a population around 50,000, is rapidly growing and with visitors often turning into residents, it's no wonder the US Census Bureau named us the "Fastest Growing City in the State of Oklahoma."

Stillwater is home to some of the region's finest education and training institutions including Oklahoma State University, Meridian Technology Center, Northern Oklahoma College, and one of the nation's top-ranked public school systems.

With such a strong commitment to education, it's easy to see why Stillwater's educational attainment is among the highest in the nation with 48 percent of its residents holding bachelor's degrees and higher. We are the micropolitan anchor for the state's technology triangle that also includes OKC and Tulsa.

Known for events such as Calf Fry, America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration, and OSU Football – Stillwater, OK is home to hundreds of events and activities throughout the year. From live music at Willie's Saloon to the handcrafted fare at the Stillwater Arts Festival; 50K trail runs at Lake McMurtry to livestock shows at the Payne County Expo Center – there is always something going on!

Stillwater's "college town" atmosphere lends itself to a variety of museums, galleries, and shopping. Move through the years, 1890 to the present, and learn about OSU's national championships at the Heritage Hall Museum. Browse through the largest collection of wrestling memorabilia in the world at the National Wrestling Hall of Fame or explore the nation's largest Student Union at OSU and learn about all of the on-campus amenities and venues.

Take a leisurely stroll down Main Street for a local experience or go for a marathon day of shopping with any of our nationally known retailers. Shopping in Stillwater is as unique an experience as is our eclectic culture.

From a cozy wine bar ambiance to the two-stepping, honky-tonk scene, Stillwater has an after-hours hot spot to suit your nightlife needs. There is no lack in the restaurant department either! From barbeque to fine dining, plus world famous stops such as Eskimo Joe's and The Original Hideaway Pizza, you will always find something to satisfy your appetite.

For the outdoor enthusiast, grab a fishing pole, pack a picnic, or take a bike ride and fill your lungs with fresh Stillwater air at one of our many outdoor recreation areas. Our trails, parks and lakes provide the perfect backdrop to take in the Oklahoma landscape.

Oklahoma State University continues to be the home of one of the most well-rounded and successful programs in college athletics and attracts more than 600,000 fans a year! With 51 national team championships, countless conference titles and some of the top individual performances in NCAA history, OSU Athletics is a vital part of the Stillwater experience.

Whether you're here for a short time or a lifetime, you'll want to stake your claim in America's Friendliest College Town!

AMERICA'S FRIENDLIEST COLLEGE TOWN

OSU PROUD

Alumni of Oklahoma State University are as loyal to their alma mater as any group in America. Just look around the Stillwater campus. OSU's director of athletics, head football coach, head wrestling coach and head baseball coach are all graduates of Oklahoma State.

Many factors contribute to the "college experience" – not the least of which is gaining a feeling of belonging and a sense of loyalty to the school, its faculty and staff, the community that embraces the university, and the athletic teams that compete to garner conference and national honors.

Wearing school colors and displaying emblems of the university are life-long symbols of allegiance. Oklahoma State's famed Homecoming is a yearly celebration that brings much activity and excitement.

THE COWBOY TRAIL

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

PISTOL PETE

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.

FRANK EATON - BEFORE PISTOL PETE

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

BULLET

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits next to the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in Stillwater.

Bullet speeds onto the field after each score.

AMERICA'S GREATEST HOMECOMING CELEBRATION

Friday night's "Walkaround" attracts thousands to campus for Homecoming.

Ask any Oklahoma State University graduate what OSU's greatest tradition is, and you'll hear one word - Homecoming.

The OSU Alumni Association has presented Homecoming at OSU since 1920 growing it from a small-town carnival to a nine-day, award-winning celebration. It is widely known as "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration" with its signature event, Walkaround, which regularly draws more than 80,000 spectators to view elaborate Greek house decorations, parade floats and residence halls bathed in orange.

OSU's Homecoming is entirely run by students - more than 250 on committees within the Alumni Association and thousands more in Greek, residential and campus life. Cowboys love our Homecoming tradition and are actively contributing to an endowment to secure its future existence and growth on our campus.

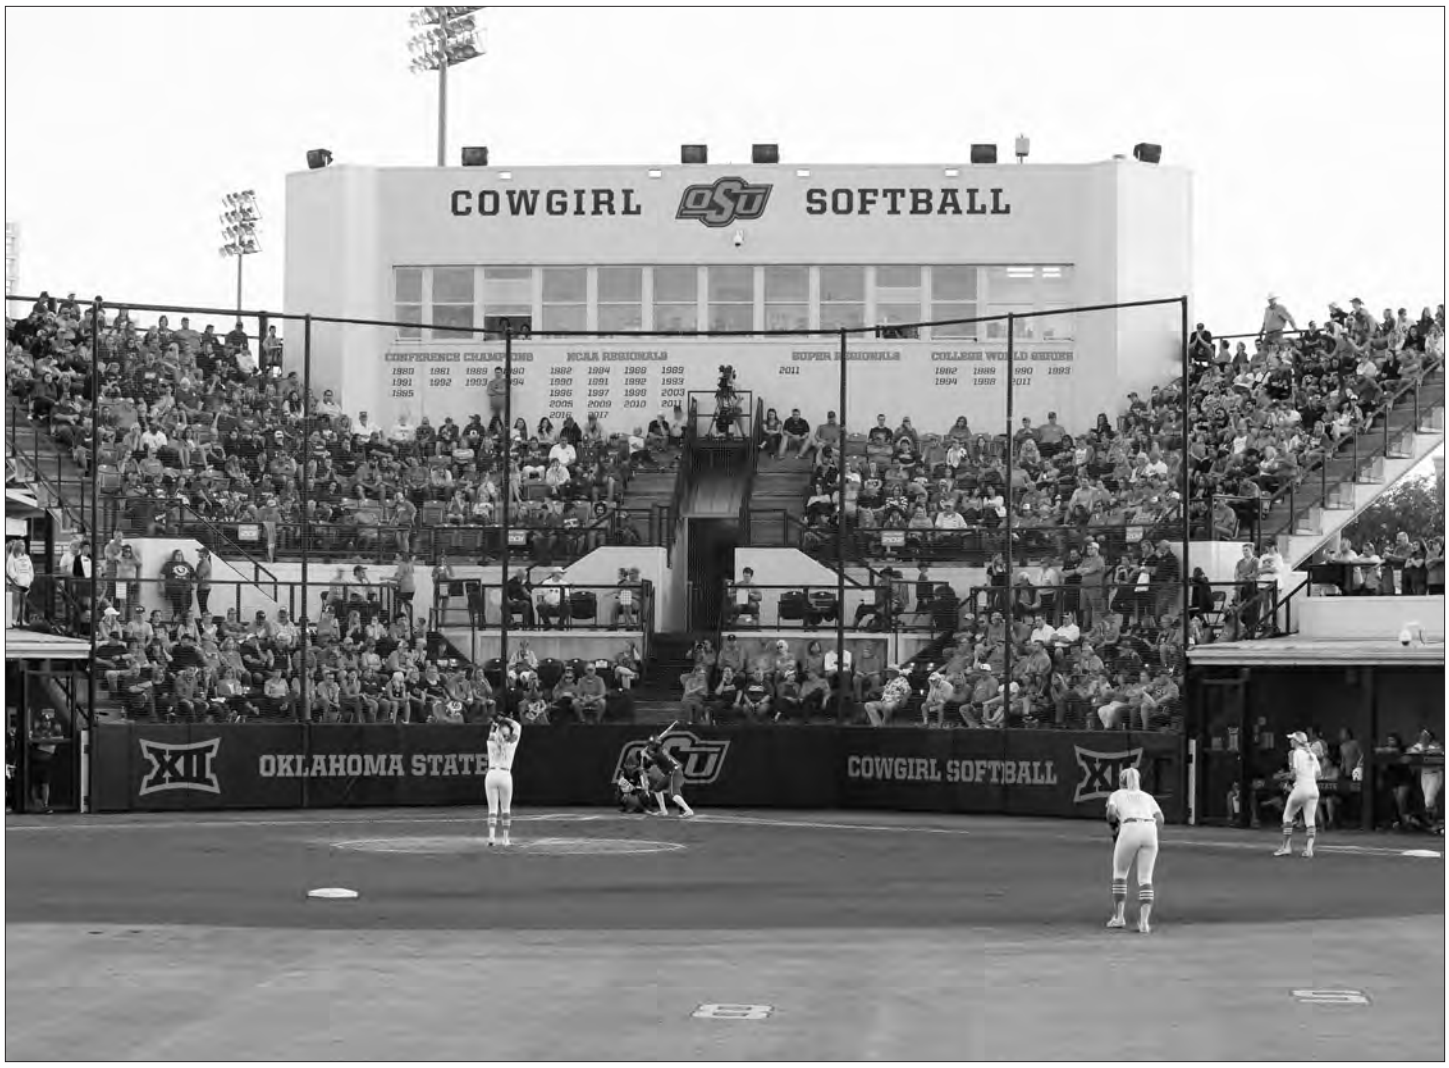
Homecoming is a driving force in the Stillwater community. In 2013, the Harvest Carnival event contributed 18,500 pounds of canned food donations to the local Harvest II food drive. Homecoming also highlights other OSU sports at Homecoming & Hoops where fans can preview the upcoming season's squads for Cowboy and Cowgirl basketball in addition to enjoying a pep rally for Saturday's football game.

From the Edmon Low Library's orange fountain to Hester Street painted for coaches and players to view during "The Walk," OSU and its alumni are proud to claim "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration." Homecoming 2018: 'Cowboys Ride On' is October 11-27 and will conclude with the Texas vs. OSU football game on Saturday, October 27.

Cowboys Ride On

The Program

Oklahoma State has established itself as a rising power in the Big 12 Conference in recent years. How did it happen? Having the right people in the right position, outstanding support from the university's administration and a growing fan base, as well as the continued efforts of players and coaches are all at the core of OSU's reemergence into the national spotlight.



COWGIRL STADIUM

STILLWATER, OKLA. | CAPACITY - 750 | OPENED - APRIL 5, 2000

"THIS FACILITY HAS SEEN SOME OF THE GREATEST MOMENTS IN OKLAHOMA STATE SOFTBALL HISTORY, AND HOPEFULLY THERE'S MANY MORE MEMORIES TO COME HERE."
- KENNY GAJEWSKI, OSU HEAD COACH

COWGIRL STADIUM

Opened April 5, 2000, against Bedlam Series rival Oklahoma, Cowgirl Stadium is one of the finest softball facilities in the Big 12 Conference. The stadium includes seating for 750 of the rowdiest fans in the country. There is also a patio over the home-team dugout where fans can stand and watch the game.

Cowgirl Stadium is one of the most electric atmospheres in the Big 12 Conference, and is an integral part of making the Oklahoma State softball tradition complete. Oklahoma State has long been one of the premier softball programs in the country.

The Cowgirls opened the stadium against Oklahoma late in the 2000 season with a record crowd of 750 fans already packed into the stadium when Lauren Bay threw the first pitch at the new facility.

Cowgirl Stadium was built at a cost of approximately $2 million on the same site as Cowgirl Field, the home of the Cowgirls for more than 20 years. Construction on the facility started on June 14th, 1999. However, the plan had been in motion for much longer. When the Oklahoma State football game versus the Nebraska Huskers was moved to Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium on Oct. 3rd, 1998, it was determined that the money made from the game's sponsor, Western Star, would finance the facility.

The first phase of construction included new dugouts, a permanent concession stand, and bathroom facilities. Further additions were completed in 2002, including the coaches' offices, Cowgirl locker room, a players' lounge and training room located behind the home dugout. In 2004, a state-of-the-art scoreboard, complete with a message board center, was put in. A new infield was installed in 2005.

Gajewski and the Cowgirls have continued to improve on the stadium by renovating the team's clubhouse and locker rooms, as well as installing top-flight padding to the dugouts, among other ventures.

Largest Cowgirl Stadium crowd on record*

TEAM MOTTO

The 2019 team motto is "Get 2 > Have 2" which was chosen to further establish a culture and mindset of appreciating the opportunity presented to each member of the program, instead of seeing it as an obstacle to overcome.

TEAM ROOM

Seats 12 people with leather couches and provides plenty of room for rest and relaxation after a long day on the field.

HISTORY IN THE OUTFIELD

The three numbers honored by OSU softball - 5, 35 and 52 - are all represented on the wall padding in left field.

ARTWORK

Wall murals and inspirational quotes are found throughout the facility, honoring both past and present Cowgirls.

The halls of Cowgirl Stadium honor the team's history, including all seven teams that appeared in the Women's College World Series.

Each member of the Cowgirl softball squad has her respective hometown represented by the player's number on a wall outside the team's locker room.

Oklahoma State has emerged as a rising power in the Big 12 Conference.

How did this Cowgirl transformation happen? Having the right people in the right position, outstanding support from the university's administration and a growing fan base, as well as the continuous efforts of players and coaches are all things at the core of Cowgirl Softball's reemergence into the national spotlight.

PROGRAM-CHANGING MOMENTS

JUNE 13, 2015 - GAJEWSKI TAKES THE REINS
Twice a national champion while serving as an assistant coach at Florida, Kenny Gajewski returned to his roots in 2015, taking over as the head coach of the OSU softball program.

FEB. 13, 2016 - GAJEWSKI'S FIRST WIN
Tiffany Mikkelson's first-inning home run was all OSU would need, and on a chilly day in San Marcos, Texas, Kenny Gajewski earned his first win as a collegiate head coach.

APRIL 2, 2016 - MIKKELSON SETS HR RECORD
She had long been a successful player, but Tiffany Mikkelson's record-setting home run in Lubbock, Texas, ushered in a new era of record-setting performances from the Cowgirls.

MAY 15, 2016 - NCAA TOURNAMENT BID
Five long years the Cowgirls had to wait for their return to the NCAA Tournament, but in May 2016, OSU returned to a place it has frequented. And it did so in Gajewski's first year at the helm.

MAY 17, 2016 - SHIPPY EARNS BIG 12 HONOR
Vanessa Shippy's historic 2016 season earned her more than just a place in the OSU record books, as she became the first Cowgirl since Lauren Bay in 2003 to earn Big 12 Player of the Year honors.

MAY 21-22, 2016 - ATHENS REGIONAL
Oklahoma State proved its mettle in its return to NCAA Tournament actions, winning three straight games while facing elimination to advance to a winner-take-all regional final against Georgia.

MARCH 26, 2017 - SHIPPY'S WALK-OFF WINNER
For a time, teams weren't necessarily concerned with coming to Stillwater to play. Vanessa Shippy changed that tune last season when she clinched the Cowgirls' sweep of Texas with a walk-off single, showing that OSU is ready to return to the top of the Big 12.

MARCH & APRIL, 2017 - STORMING THE BIG 12
The Cowgirls staked their claim in the Big 12 in 2017, winning each of their first eight games of conference play en route to posting their first top-three finish in the league since 2010.

MAY 21, 2017 - DOWN GOES NO. 1
Oklahoma State, facing elimination, bested the top-ranked Florida Gators, 1-0, in the Gainesville Regional to advance to a winner-take-all regional final for the second straight season.

UNIFORMS

"One never knows what the Cowgirls will be wearing, as their uniform choices are limitless. They have a striking new pattern for every occasion and a color wheel that goes far beyond the typical shades of black and orange. All in all, making them look good, feel great and play even better."

- Jordan Bishop, Stillwater News Press, January 2018

Oklahoma State Uniform Highlights

NO REPEATS, NO PROBLEMS

With six separate jerseys, five uniquely-colored pants and several distinct stirrup patterns, OSU can go an entire season, and then some, without wearing the same uniform combination more than once. In total, Oklahoma State can feature more than 80 individual uniform combinations, based solely on uniforms, pants and stirrups. Add in other uniform details such as hats, helmets and gloves, and it could be quite some time before you see the same uniform combination a second time.

A LOGO TELLS A THOUSAND WORDS

Oklahoma State's uniforms feature three distinct identifying features - the Oklahoma State brand, the school's Marshal Badge logo and the word "Cowgirls." The center-placed logo is similar to two of the designs that the Oklahoma State men's basketball program wears and is a growing trend across college athletics. OSU's two white jerseys and anthracite-pinstripped uniforms all feature the standard OSU brand across the chest, while the gray jerseys feature the marshal badge. OSU's orange jerseys feature the word "Cowgirls" across the chest. It is written in the cursive-style font originally made famous in Stillwater by the Oklahoma State men's basketball program.

COLOR SCHEME

While Oklahoma State's uniforms are evolving, the Cowgirls stay true to the school's primary colors. OSU's closet consists of five colors (orange, black, white, gray and anthracite), all of which appear throughout OSU's uniform combinations in a variety of ways. The Cowgirls also field several stirrup templates, consisting of white and orange patterns, black, white and orange patterns and several others. The Cowgirls' two white jerseys feature the school's orange and black colors, with one featuring orange trim and the other black. There is a third set of white jerseys that feature anthracite-colored pinstripes throughout the jersey and pants. OSU's pants all also feature a variety of features, including different piping colors, as well as the Nike swoosh and OSU marshal badge.

ACADEMIC NOTES

In 2018, the Oklahoma State softball team won 39 games, capped by a third-straight bid to compete in the NCAA Tournament. Four members of that team earned their degrees from Oklahoma State University last year, bringing head coach Kenny Gajewski's total to 14 Cowgirls graduated during his three-year stint as head coach.

Academics has been at the forefront of the revitalization in Stillwater. In Gajewski's first two seasons, OSU led the Big 12 Conference in Academic All-Big 12 selections, recording double-digit honorees in both 2016 and 2017. OSU also led the league in first-team honorees with 10 Cowgirls being selected to the Big 12's premier academic squad.

Former Cowgirl standout Vanessa Shippy highlights OSU's academic success under Gajewski, as she joined Chelsea Garcia and Lisa Harvey as the only Cowgirls in Oklahoma State history to earn multiple Academic All-America honors, as she collected first-team honors each of her final three seasons in Stillwater. She's the only one of the three to have earned multiple first-team honors, however.

Gajewski has made it clear that academic success, along with growth on the field, will be a pillar of Oklahoma State's reemergence in the coming years.

Here's a look at the players who have graduated from OSU during Gajewski's tenure as head coach:

SOFTBALL GRADUATES

Nineteen softball players have graduated from Oklahoma State during Kenny Gajewski's three-plus years in Stillwater.

PROGRAM RECORD

ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 SELECTIONS

- Thirty-two Cowgirls have been selected to the Academic All-Big 12 team during head coach Kenny Gajewski's two years at the helm, setting a new program record for the most honorees during a three-year stretch.
- In 2017, Oklahoma State led the Big 12 with 12 Academic All-Big 12 selections, 11 of which were first-team honorees, to lead the conference for the second consecutive season.
- The 12 honorees and 11 first-team members both marked new program bests, as they surpassed the 2016 squad's record-setting marks of 10 Academic All-Conference selections and seven first-team honorees.
- OSU also topped the league with 10 first-team honorees in 2018, marking the third-straight season that the team had at least 10 players recognized for their academic success.
- While the entire OSU softball program has been a measure of academic success these past two years, it has been Vanessa Shippy setting the pace for not just the Cowgirls, but everyone within the Big 12 Conference as well. In 2017, Shippy was one of just five players in the league to earn a 4.0 grade point average.
- Former Cowgirl Maddi Holcomb followed Shippy's lead in 2018 and was one of three to record a 4.0 grade-point average before graduating in May.
- Oklahoma State has long had a history of academic excellence within the school's softball program. Since 1983, OSU has produced 166 Academic All-Conference honorees. Seventy-eight of those academic standouts have come since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996.
